CLUB WOMEN GUESTS IN GLENDALE

Third Presidents' Council Of L. A. District In Session In City

Hymns of praise in anticipation of Thanksgiving were sung this morning by over 450 club women, gathered in the home city and guests of the home club of their president, Mrs. Charles H. Toll, for the third presidents' council of the Los Angeles District, California Federation of Women's clubs.

Recalling the gracious hospitality extended by the Tuesday afternoon club during the district convention last April, clubwomen came from near and far for the council today. So many were in attendance that many of them were unable to make reservations for luncheon, the clubhouse banquet hall accommodating only 250. Those failing to have reservations at the clubhouse enjoyed luncheon at other places in Glendale.

Mrs. Toll Presides
Mrs. Toll presided over both sessions. Prayer by Mrs. Daniel Campbell, junior past president of the hostess' club, opened the council. Mrs. W. E. Mabey, district chairman of music, led in singing. "Treasurer, Auditor and Financial Secretary" was the general subject of the thirty-minute parliamentary law institute conducted by Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, district parliamentarian.

A feature of the morning music was a Thanksgiving hymn sung by the Virginia Four, presented by Mrs. Roberta T. Young, curator of the Tuesday Afternoon club's music department. Members of the quartet, Pearl Adair Kribs, Gretna Cordary, Gladys

COMMUNITY CHEST FUND NOW $17,780

Reports Given By Majors at Luncheon Held Today Noon at Church

Encouraging reports were made today by workers of the Glendale Community Chest campaign, meeting at luncheon in the Presbyterian church with members of the Rotary club. J. Herbert Smith presided for the Rotarians and W. E. Hewitt for the Community Chest.

Edwin Woodman, a pupil at the Glendale Intermediate school, gave a five-minute talk on illiteracy in furtherance of the national education campaign. J. Arthur Meyers acted as song leader. An announcement was made of a program to be put on tomorrow night in the Presbyterian church, at which a Los Angeles soprano will appear.

A. L. Baird called for the reports of workers, which were as follows: Division No. 1, Paul Stillman, major, 58 subscriptions, $565; division No. 2, Rex Kelley, major, 33 subscriptions, $320; division No. 3, J. J. Vernet, major, 24 subscriptions, $218; division No. 4, Emil Keifer, major, 66 subscriptions, $433; division No. 5, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, major, 122 subscriptions, $752.15; division No. 6, Mrs. E. H. Botsford, major, 50 subscriptions, $627.50; division No. 7, Miss Leeta McCoy, major, 95 subscriptions, $537.75; division No. 8, Mrs. E. J. Morgan, major, 47 subscriptions, $213.75; executive committee, 18 subscriptions, $935; total for the day, $4,602.15; total to date, $17,780.35.

The banner for the men's division went to Paul Stillman's team and the women's banner went to Mrs. H. E. Bartlett's team.

Independence For Filipino, Demand From Commission

MANILA, Nov. 20.—"Immediate, absolute and complete independence" is demanded in a resolution adopted by the Filipino independence commission today.

Representative Recto, who has just returned from the United States, created a sensation in the meeting when he accused Manuel Quezon and Representative Osmena with falsehood because of statements they had made that they had opposed the Fairfield bill.

Recto produced letters from the war department to Governor General Wood, stating categorically that Quezon had agreed to support the bill. He also produced a letter from the war department stating Osmena had apologized for attacks on Governor Wood and promised the Filipinos would cooperate with Wood in the future.

BUSINESS WOMEN LUNCHEON GUESTS

Mrs. Martha Persch Presides At Meeting; H. V. Adams Is Principal Speaker

Glendale business and professional women were special guests at the weekly meeting of the Greater Glendale Luncheon club at the Masonic temple today noon.

Mrs. Martha E. Persch, secretary of the apartment house committee of the Chamber of Commerce, presided.

H. V. Adams, notable Glendale speaker and business expert, delivered an address on business psychology. The address was received with much enthusiasm. He urged the necessity of hard work as the greatest contributing element to success in life.

George Milliken, 12-year-old Wilson Intermediate schoolboy, addressed the luncheon club members. He told of the purposes of National Education Week, the work being done at his school and urged that support be given the observance of Education week.

Pledges Support
Mrs. J. M. Woolsey, president of the Business and Professional Woman's club, spoke briefly and pledged the support of her organization to the chamber of commerce.

Mike Kaufman, the luncheon club's musician, won the attendance prize, a high-priced gas heater donated by Coker and Taylor.

D. H. Orgibet announced next week's prize will be a live turkey, the gift of George Lyons. Next week's meeting will be held Wednesday noon.

Two weeks hence the attendance prize will be gasoline and oil for the winner's automobile for one week. It will be the presentation of H. L. Coleman.

Howard L. Wood, chamber of commerce secretary told of the monthly forum dinner to take place next Monday night at 6:30 o'clock. He asked that reservations be made immediately. All Glendale is invited, he said.

INCOME TAX INDICTMENT RETURNED

Baltimore Daily Post Is First Paper to Face U. S. Test Suit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Baltimore Daily Post has been indicted for publishing income tax returns. Attorney-General Stone announced this afternoon.

The attorney-general said that the Baltimore paper was the first of a number of periodicals which are to be indicted in order to bring test cases before the United States supreme court.

The indictment was returned in the United States district court for the District of Maryland and there were five counts, the paper being charged with publishing the tax returns of Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, Walter Newcomer, J. Cookman Boyd, Leon C. Coblenz and Frank Furst.

Not Authorized, Claim
The indictment was drawn under the revenue act of 1924, which prohibited the printing and publishing of tax returns except as "provided by law."

The government holds that publication of the returns in newspapers is not authorized by the statute.

Conviction carries with it a fine of not more than $1,000 and imprisonment for the publisher for a period of not more than one year.

Movie Publicity Stunt Lands 3 Men In Jail

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 20.—Charged with conspiracy to commit a misdemeanor for having placed a fake bomb in the editorial department of the San Diego Union, morning newspaper, as a practical joke and publicity stunt for a picture showing a local theatre, C. C. Pratt, the theatre manager, Max Brunstein, press agent, and William Fife, who admits he was given $2 by the other men to place the fake infernal machine in the newspaper office, remained in jail today while the district attorney's office prepared to prosecute to the limit.

County Presses Probe In Pastor's Wife Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 20.—Investigation into the mysterious circumstances attending the death of Mrs. C. V. Sheatsley, 50, wife of a prominent local Lutheran minister, was transferred today from the scene of the tragedy here to Paris, Ohio, Mrs. Sheatsley's girlhood home.

County Prosecutor King, a detective and stenographer, were to leave this morning for Paris to interrogate relatives of the dead woman, hoping they will be able to furnish some thread which may help in clearing up the mystery of her death.

L. A. Divorcee Athwart Law In Swiss Hotel

GENEVA, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Millicent Paddelford has fallen athwart the law again, according to Zurich dispatches to the Geneva Journal, telling of her arrest there on false pretense charges. The concierge of a Zurich hotel complained that Mrs. Paddelford, who was divorced from Dr. George Paddelford in Los Angeles last year, borrowed 200 francs from the concierge and gave as security a ring worth about 20 francs.

Novelist's Attack on King Uncensored Here
WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—No request has been received by the United States from the Spanish government to prevent the publication of "Alphonse XIII Unmasked," Blasco Ibanez' attack on the King of Spain, it was said at the state department. This government could not stop the publication of Ibanez works, anyway, save by court injunction, and that is considered improbable.

Councilman Davis Says Bribe Of $300 Cash Offered Him

Stirring the members of the City Council and citizens present in the council chamber during a hearing today on light standards for Colorado boulevard by announcing that he had been offered $300 in cash to vote "no" on the proposition, Councilman Sam Davis refused, when questioned, to reveal who had offered the asserted bribe.

Throughout the hearing, Councilman Davis said several times: "If I am pushed too far in this matter, I'll come out with something."

After this alleged threat had been made several times by Councilman Davis, he said:

"I have been offered $300 cash to vote 'no' on this proposition."

F. A. Clarke, representing the Marbleite corporation, bidding for the installation of light standards on Colorado boulevard, jumped to his feet, and said:

"Mr. Davis, do you mean to include me in that statement?"

"No, I am not including you in the statement," Councilman Davis answered. Nothing further concerning the alleged bribe was mentioned by the councilman.

"I intend to take this matter to the supreme court if necessary, to find out why a petition signed by 75 per cent of the property owners favoring Marbleite was thrown out in favor of a petition for Union Metal, signed by only 52 per cent," said Mr. Clark.

Robert Greyk, of the Colorado Boulevard Improvement association, demanded to know what assurance the property owners would be given that the city type of standards could be installed as quickly or cheaply as Union Metal standards.

"I'll put up a certified check for $1000 as a guarantee that the city type of standards can be put in as quick as any others," Councilman Davis said, "and I'll contract to put them in for $95 a post."

Councilman S. S. Gilhuly demanded to know what right Councilman Davis had to be in the contracting business when he is sitting on the city council.

Councilman Davis replied that he was not in the contracting business, but that he had investigated the situation and knew what he was talking about.

The members of the council voted three to two to adopt the light standard designed by Peter Diederich, superintendent of plant and production, for all street lighting in the future. The vote on the question was: Yes: Mayor Robinson, Councilman Hall and Davis. No: Councilman Kimlin, and Gilhuly.

This vote was taken after the vote to reject all proceedings of last week for Union Metal standards on Colorado boulevard from Glendale avenue to the west city limits, resulted in a tie. The vote on the Union Metal question was: Yes: Councilman Davis and Hall. No: Mayor Robinson and Councilman Gilhuly.

Not Voting: Councilman Kimlin.
City Attorney Ray L. Morrow, following the vote, said:

"I will not prepare any proceedings for ornamental lights on Colorado boulevard until they clarify the situation."

It was the consensus of opinion that the proceedings last week for Union Metal standards on Colorado boulevard will stand, but no city officials would affirm or deny this report.

BEARS READY TO CONTEST CARDINALS

California and Stanford Appear Evenly Matched In Annual Clash

BULLETIN
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Nov. 20.—Stanford's prospects suffered a hard blow this afternoon when, less than forty-eight hours before the "big game" with California, Norman

Cleveland, star halfback, was declared ineligible for competition by the board of athletic control.

Cleveland, it was established, had participated as a substitute in a game in 1921 and, under conference rules this constituted a year's play. Information regarding Cleveland's participation in this game was called to the attention of Stanford athletic authorities by California without any recommendation.

"On the basis of information that has been presented for investigation," said a statement, issued by Dr. W. H. Barrows, athletic moderator, "that Player Cleveland substituted in the Nevada-Stanford game November 12, 1921, this participation, according to conference rules, constitutes a year's participation. Cleveland is, therefore, ineligible for further competition."

May Play Notre Dame
While all comment on the subject is withheld by athletic authorities, it was learned today that a meeting between Stanford and Notre Dame either Christmas day or New Year's day is a probability.

If the contest is staged Christmas day, it will be played here. If New Year's day, it will be at Pasadena. Inasmuch as Notre Dame has already accepted an invitation to play at Pasadena New Year's day it is regarded as highly probable that Stanford would accept an invitation to be their western opponent.

Athletic authorities intimated that nothing would be done until after the California game Saturday, but early action after that is out of the way is expected.

For Uniform Standards
"I will never vote to abandon proceedings on that 52 per cent petition until it is protested out," declared Councilman S. S. Gilhuly. "I am for uniform standards throughout the city."

"I am not in favor of holding up progress on West Colorado boulevard to help East Colorado boulevard get street lights," said Councilman C. E. Kimlin, outlining his position in the controversy, "but I believe that ultimately we will be forced to adopt some type of standard designed by the city, in order to avoid these wrangles."

Five Lose Lives When Fire Sweeps District
WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 20.—At least five persons lost their lives early today in a fire which burned to the ground seven business places and apartment houses in Plymouth at an estimated loss of $75,000. Fifty families were driven into the street with the thermometer freezing, while seven were carried from the buildings unconscious.

In an effort to unite these conflicting factions in support of a single standard, the council several weeks ago instructed Peter Diederich, superintendent of plant and production, to design a standard that could be used by the city. It was the effort of certain East Colorado boulevard property owners to introduce this standard, backed by Councilman S. A. Davis, that precipitated the fireworks.

Charges of Fraud
"Many of these rival brands of posts, in Glendale and elsewhere, have been put across by fraud and petty bribery," declared Councilman Davis, "after the controversy had grown hot, and if I am pushed too far I will tell what I know."

There came a sound from the audience.

"Who's hollering?" demanded Councilman Davis, annoyed.

"No one," said Mayor Spencer Robinson. "That's your applause."

Saving of Money
"How much will the city make out of Mr. Diederich's posts?" some one asked from the audience.

Submits Estimate On State's Income For Next Biennium

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20.—The state income for the biennium beginning July 1, 1925, is placed at $101,340,000 by Secretary M. D. Lack of the state Board of Equalization, in a report submitted today to Governor Friend W. Richardson. The state revenues for the biennium ending June 30, 1925, are placed at $92,000,000.

Public utilities, franchises, banks and insurance companies furnish $85,500,000 of the total, it is estimated. Discussing the report, state officials said the board of equalization figures closely indicate the total of the governor's new budget.

The estimate of $2,000,000 income from the poll tax initiative endorsed at the recent election, is a new source of income.

The total biennium figures are $106,560,000, from which $5,220,000 in litigation is deducted, leaving a net available income of $101,340,000.

HUGE SIGN ON HILLS PROPOSED

Advancement Association's Members In Move To Advertise City

Steps toward the securing, installing and maintenance of a monstrous electric sign bearing the word Glendale, located on the hills north of the city, will be taken by the Glendale Advancement association, it was decided at a meeting of the organization held at the Harriet Mae tea room today.

President C. W. Ingledue suggested that placing of the sign, named Glendale, Thomas N. L. Duncan and Fred McIntyre as members of a committee to take up the suggestion with other civic organizations. It is proposed to have the city bear the expenses, the money to be taken from the advertising budget of the city.

T. H. Menk reported that a mail box had been installed by the post office at Glendale avenue and Broadway. A resolution of sympathy was passed by the organization relative to the death of President Ingledue's brother recently.

J. T. Edwards, of 1213 North Brand boulevard, was introduced to the members of the organization. His son, Edgar Edwards of Wilson Intermediate school, gave a brief address on the value of education in keeping with the observance of National Education week. Following the address, the youth as presented with a token of remembrance by the association.

It was decided to forego the meeting next week inasmuch as the regular meeting date will come on Thanksgiving.

Ince Burial Services In Private Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—Private funeral services for Thomas H. Ince, noted motion picture producer, who died at his home here yesterday, will be held Friday. Only members of the family will attend the services.

Millionaire Publisher's Son Is Granted Divorce

DETROIT, Nov. 20.—Judge Dewitt H. Merriam handed down a decree today granting James Scripps, Jr., son of the millionaire publisher, an absolute decree of divorce from Mrs. Ruth Maud Scripps, on Scripps' cross bill denying her charges of cruelty and countering with cruelty charges of his own.

Mrs. Scripps, who sued for separate maintenance, was given the custody of their infant son, James Scripps, III, and $100 a month alimony. Scripps is ordered to pay her one dollar in lieu of all dower rights and to pay his son $1,000 when he can.

SQUARE DEAL IS PROMISE FROM LOS ANGELES

Ranchers Turn Back Water Upon Assurance Rights Will Be Observed

ALABAMA HILLS SPILLWAY, INYO COUNTY, CAL., Nov. 20.—The massive iron gates of the Los Angeles aqueduct were closed here today and $10,000 worth of water which, since Sunday, had daily been diverted from the canal by Owens valley raiders, again began its rush to Los Angeles.

Capitulating in their war against Los Angeles over the Owens valley water rights, the leaders of the little militant band called a truce and closed the water gates today after a hastily called night conference.

The sudden surrender of the aqueduct "seizers" was made after W. W. Watterson, Owens valley banker and rancher, had telegraphed leaders of the raiders pleading with them to give up the aqueduct. Watterson declared such action should be taken on promises to him from the Los Angeles Clearing House association that if the water was turned back the valley property owners "would get a square deal."

Crowd Gives Cheers
As soon as the gates were lowered, employees of the water department of Los Angeles took charge and the raiding party's guards were called off.

Two hundred men and fifty women in the Owens contingent shouted and cheered as the huge gates settled into place. The defenders' camp orchestra played a merry tune and the men threw hats in the air.

A barbecue to celebrate what was termed a victory for the valley residents was to be held this afternoon.

Act On Promise
Harry Glasscock, Owens valley newspaper publisher and one of the raid leaders, issued a statement explaining the truce. The statement said:

"The action of the citizens of Owens valley in turning the water back into the aqueduct was taken voluntarily upon the promise of the Los Angeles Clearing House association to use every effort to bring about an equitable settlement of the water troubles between Los Angeles and the valley."

"Relying upon this promise the people have gladly taken this action and hope the newspapers and the general public will stand behind the efforts of the association to end forever this trouble. A square deal is all the people here ask."

Banker In Conference
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—W. W. Watterson, Owens valley banker, whose telegram brought an end today to the seizure of the headgates of this city's aqueduct, has been in Los Angeles for three days in conference with business men and city officials.

ILLITERACY IS DECLARED MENACE TO ENTIRE NATION

Child Labor and Immigration Laws Are Held Responsible for Large Number of Men, Women and Children Uneducated

By BERTHA I. BERRY

Second Vice-President Glendale City Teachers' Club

The word illiteracy, as used by the census bureau, signifies inability to write in any language. So, bear in mind that these figures do not include anyone having even first grade ability, but only those who are not able to write at all in any language.

The 1920 census gave 4,900,000 illiterates in the United States. Illiteracy is not confined to any particular section of the country. There is not a state that does not number its illiterates in the thousands.

In 1918, in California, there were 76,984 illiterates, and in Los Angeles county alone there were 9639 illiterates. The extent of illiteracy in the United States is a national disgrace. The statistics of 1920 put us in tenth place among the nations. In 1920 Iowa stood first among the states, having the smallest per cent of illiterate people of any of our states. California stood twenty-fourth on that list. Are we, as a state, going to hold that place in 1930?

Menace to Nation

Illiteracy is a menace to our nation. A democracy is founded upon an intelligent co-operation of all its citizens. Illiteracy is its greatest enemy. It breeds an anti-social spirit. It causes misunderstanding, unrest and revolt. Illiterates are willing tools of political leaders. President Coolidge said in a recent address:

"There are 14,000,000 foreign-born white persons residing among us, many of whom have no opportunity to learn to read and write the English language, that they may come in more direct contact with the ideals and standards of our life, political and social."

"There are, likewise, 3,000,000 native-born illiterates. When it is remembered that ignorance is the most fruitful source of poverty, vice and crime, it is easy to realize the necessity for removing what is a menace not only to our social well-being, but to the very existence of the republic. A failure to meet this obligation registers a serious and inexcusable defect in our government."

Voting Franchise

The secretary of the interior says ten per cent of the people of the United States cannot read the laws which they are supposed to know. Shall an illiterate cast a ballot which he can not read? Of the men called to service between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one, one-fourth were almost totally illiterate. They could not read an American newspaper or write a letter home.

Secretary Lane estimated that the annual loss to the nation because of illiteracy alone is $25,000,000. It would be cheaper to educate. Recent show that nearly half of the industrial accidents are caused by the workers not being able to read the signs or understand the orders given them. The director of the bureau of mines states that half of the men who are working in mines in the United States cannot speak English.

Only Two Causes

Why is there so much illiteracy? It has been stated that the two main causes are: Lax immigration regulations that have allowed so many illiterates to enter from other countries and child labor in factories, shops and on the land, that has kept the native born out of school.

More than 8,000,000 of our 14,000,000 foreign born citizens come from countries in which 25 per cent to 80 per cent of the population is illiterate. We have 1,700,000 non-English speaking citizens.

Much is already being done by night schools and home visiting teachers to lessen the illiteracy of the adult. Pending before congress is a proposition to establish a department of education to be presided over by an officer of the president's cabinet. Such a department would discover more effective methods for nation wide adult education.

Child Labor Law

Child labor is one of our great causes of illiteracy and illiteracy will continue so long as child labor is allowed to exist. According to the census of 1920 there were more than 1,000,000 children in the United States, between ten and sixteen years of age at work in shops, factories and in other gainful occupations, 378,000 between ten and fourteen. Some of them are to be found in every state in the union.

This cause of illiteracy can not be stamped out until the nation offers some encouragement and stands back of what most of the states are trying to do. In New York city there has been a 12 per cent increase in 1923 over 1922 in the number of child laborers fourteen and fifteen years of age.

Hide Behind Laws

The employers dodged behind state laws in passing back and forth. Those who gave out the work resided in New York. The children who did it resided in New Jersey. These children, many of them tubercular and otherwise diseased were heading dresses and working on toys. Their work was found to be in the most

Illiteracy Is Uncovered During Draft In 1918

By MADELINE SMITH

Union High School. B-11
In 1918, when our men were being drafted for the World War, the number of illiterates found among them was astounding. Many could not distinguish between their right and left hands. These included native-born whites, many with ancestry dating back to the founding of the Union, Negroes and foreign-born. Five per cent of the 18-year-old Americans spoke no English.

About 10 per cent of the people in America are technically illiterate. Every state is ashamed of its number. Iowa with a little over 1 per cent, and Kentucky with five, are the two extremes. Thirty thousand men in Kentucky alone signed their draft registration with a cross. In 1920 there were 2,500,000 in America who could not sign their own name. The foreigners whose script and printed letters are different from ours find it the hardest to learn English.

Many of the laborers are illiterate. These form a drag on labor. They are examples of radical "agitators." Through misunderstanding, strike and coal strikes result. The illiterates cost the government a quarter of a million a day. The accidents of the Henry Ford plants were cut 54 per cent after they had wiped illiteracy from them.

Much is being done to help these people. Evening schools have been started, but those who cannot read or write English cannot go to these schools. Industrial fatigue, lack of means, family obligations and faulty school methods to arouse and maintain interest, all are causes for many not attending school. Schools in places of employment have proved popular and successful if handled properly. "Self Help" lessons have been given out.

The "Moonlight Schools," founded for adults living out of the rural districts, is a remarkable example of what earnest, systematic effort can accomplish. These schools were founded in Kentucky and on the first night fifty schools were arranged throughout the section. Twelve hundred people attended, and they had expected not more than a hundred and fifty. These people were anxious to learn, but before they had lacked the opportunity. One man of ninety-eight learned to read and write.

Through the earnest and untiring efforts of the people of our country the illiterates will be greatly benefited, and the number reduced.

MRS. TOLL DECLINES HONORS

Prominent Club Leader Is Not Willing to Accept
State Presidency

Mrs. Charles H. Toll of Glendale, president of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs, and nationally known for her executive ability and leadership, has declined to accept the nomination for any state office for 1925-1927. It was learned today at the presidents' council at the Tuesday Afternoon club. Through her successes as district chairman, Mrs. Toll has been mentioned as a successor to the state president, Mrs. John C. Urquhart; however, her decision made known today shatters the desires and hopes of her countless supporters.

It is said that Mrs. J. B. Lorbeer, vice president, and also chairman of federation extension for the district, is the most probable candidate from the south for the state presidency. The only thing standing in the way of Mrs. Lorbeer's candidacy is a sentiment to make her president of the district to succeed Mrs. Toll.

At the close of the council today there was a meeting of the district board to sponsor representatives for the state offices to be filled by election at the spring convention at Santa Cruz.

Hat Box Now Known as Brooks' Millinery Shop

Mrs. C. B. Brooks of the Brooks Hemstitching and Pleating shop, 123 North Brand boulevard, announces that her millinery shop, formerly known as the Hat Box, will now bear the name Brooks' Millinery. Mrs. Brooks will manage the millinery business and devote her entire time an dpersonal efforts to it.

Bicycle Left Outside Public Library Stolen

Wendell Sherman of 601 West California avenue reported today the theft of his bicycle last night from outside the public library on East Harvard street.

Snappy Music Planned For Dance by Legion

Excellent music is promised those who attend the Thanksgiving ball given by Glendale Post of the American Legion next Saturday night at 333 North Brand boulevard. Lee Brann's Novelty orchestra of Los Angeles, under the management of Harold Korn of Glendale, has been engaged for the occasion. This orchestra is composed of eight pieces and the boys are all artists. Several of the members play two or three different instruments and this enables them to furnish many pleasant musical combinations. Some of the boys have toured the country on the leading vaudeville circuits.

The orchestra, as a whole, played an engagement at Loew's State theatre a short time ago and just recently finished a season's engagement at the China Gardens near Los Angeles. The dance committee, composed of Leroy Portner and W. J. Horstman, consider themselves highly fortunate in being able to secure the services of these talented musicians and they promise Glendaleans a brand of harmonious jazz that has seldom, if ever, been heard in Glendale.

Another feature of the evening will be the giving away of a real live turkey. On account of these special features a big turnout of Legionnaires, and their friends, and the public, generally, is expected.

Bugle Corps to Stage Old-Time Turkey Shoot

Veterans of the World war and all hunters who think they are expert shots with a rifle will have an opportunity Saturday and Sunday to secure turkeys, ducks and chicken at an old-fashioned turkey shoot to be held under the auspices of the recently organized drum and bugle corps of Glendale post No. 127, American Legion. The place is Kenneth road and Central avenue, and the shoots will be held at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon and 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Rifles will be furnished for all who do not have their own "shootin' irons."

Brooks' Millinery Shop Offers Special Models

Mrs. C. B. Brooks, owner of the millinery shop at 123 North Brand boulevard, is offering special models for Thanksgiving and will also have an exclusive showing of creations for the Christmas holidays. Mrs. R. E. Dewey and daughter, Helen, who recently purchased the Stocking Box, 100 West Broadway, were employed by Mrs. Brooks as saleswomen prior to their new venture.

More Limericks! Sit Tight And Read Them Then Compose Some!

By LIMERICK EDITOR
 Of The Evening News Staff.

More limericks today, folks! Reached into the pile of limericks sent to The Glendale Evening News for the contest that closed at midnight Monday and grabbed a handful for today's paper. Brighten up the sheet. Try 'em on your radio.

Speaking of legs—If you were Miss Betie Stevens, 207 1/2 West Hawthorne, sent this one, via Postmaster Jackson's hired hands:

There was a Glendale flapper named Mable,
Who used to dance on the Egyptian table;
When a man in the crowd
Hollered out loud:
"Oh, look at the legs on the table."

Why, Betie! The Limerick Editor, who is baldheaded and stays home nights, got a real thrill at that one. By the way, Betie, have you Mable's address?

The Glendale Evening News is proud of its classified ads and their pulling powers, to change the subject. S. C. Kinch, 200 1/2 West Lomita, also is proud of 'em, evidently, for this is his contribution:

A man left the east in a gale,
Was dropped from a zep in Glendale;
When he fully awoke,
The first words that he spoke:
"A home in this beautiful vale!"

Nothing about the classified ads there, you say? Hold tight. There is another spasm following. Here it is:

He read in The News classified,
Bought a home that suited his pride;
He then bought a "Caddy,"
For tot, mom and daddy,
So, now, they are all satisfied.

Bravo, Mr. Kinch! The Glendale Evening News classified ads aim to satisfy—and they hit the bulls-eye.

About this time the readers—to say nothing of the writer—may be thirsty. H. T. Crawford, 341 North Jackson, furnishes the refreshment. Drink this:

A man with a taste for champagne
Said it will surely drive me insane
To think that I order
Drink nothing but water
And never a highball again.

Ah! That one, Mr. Crawford, was never written on the barroom floor!

Didja ever hear the one about the young girl in Berlin? No, not

If no immigrants were admitted into the United States, the population would double in eighty years at the present increase rate.

THAT one! THIS one from Eugene Saylor, 335 Patterson:
There was a young girl in Berlin
Who was so exceedingly thin,
That when she essayed
To drink lemonade,
She slipped through the straw and
"ell in."

But who was the girl drinking LEMONADE in Berlin? Eh, Eugene? Never mind answering. Before leavin', Eugene, read this one—rather involved—that he also sent in:

A canner uncannily canny
One day remarked to his granny,
"A canner can can Anything that he can,
But a canner can't can a can, can he?"

J. H. Payne, 463 Salem, offered a limerick that might interest a dealer in skid chains—to say nothing about the sheiks of this fair city:

In Glendale there lived a young dear,
Who used too much cold cream I hear,
When the fellows would aim,
At the lips of the dame,
They skidded and kissed her left ear.

Mr. Payne, however, did not stop with the troubles of the kisser and kisser. He went to a dance and this is what he saw:

There was a young man named Hall,
Who attended a matinee Ball.
In the midst of a dance,
He ruptured his pants
And had to go home in a shawl.

Mamma! The party's getting rough! Here's a good place to stop for today. More limericks tomorrow.

REMEMBER: The Glendale Evening News has announced AN-OTHER limerick contest. This newspaper will pay $3 for the first prize, $2 for the second and $1 for the third.

The contest closes midnight, Friday, November 21, 1924. Each limerick must have the name and address of the writer. Send in as many as you wish. Try and swamp the Limerick Editor, gang!

WIFE DOUBTS DEATH OF HUSBAND

Faith of Mrs. Winnagle In Missing Mate Shaken
By New Evidence

The faith of Mrs. Nida Winnagle in her husband, Charles Winnagle, which she has maintained since Winnagle's mysterious disappearance, two weeks ago, has been shattered by developments of the past twenty-four hours.

At the home of friends in Verdugo City and before sheriff's deputies in Los Angeles, Mrs. Winnagle has staunchly held to her theory that Winnagle had met with foul play and was murdered for the large amount of money he carried, scoffing the belief of authorities that the man is still alive and unharmed. With mingled fear and anticipation Mrs. Winnagle awaited the return of her husband, whom she had married only two months ago.

Discovery by Los Angeles police that the new high-priced car driven by Winnagle and purchased with money furnished by his bride had been sold to a second-hand dealer at Reno, Nev., for $65, and a special delivery letter to Mrs. Winnagle from her mother in Detroit, changed the wife's opinion where the sheriff's office failed.

Stories Didn't Tally

According to word from Reno, where Mrs. Winnagle last saw her husband, the description of the man who sold her automobile for $65 tallies with that of Winnagle. On the other hand, the letter from Detroit contained a telegram which was sent by Winnagle from Lordsdale, N. M., to his wife's mother in Detroit. The telegram read that Mr. and Mrs. Winnagle were on their way home and that the car had broken down in New Mexico. It asked that the mother send $60 immediately for repairs to the auto.

Mrs. Winnagle's mother, although not yet informed of Winnagle's disappearance was suspicious for two reasons: she had received a request for money only the day before from her daughter here in Glendale, and the information in the telegram did not tally with other information contained in the first request. She immediately mailed the telegram to her daughter here.

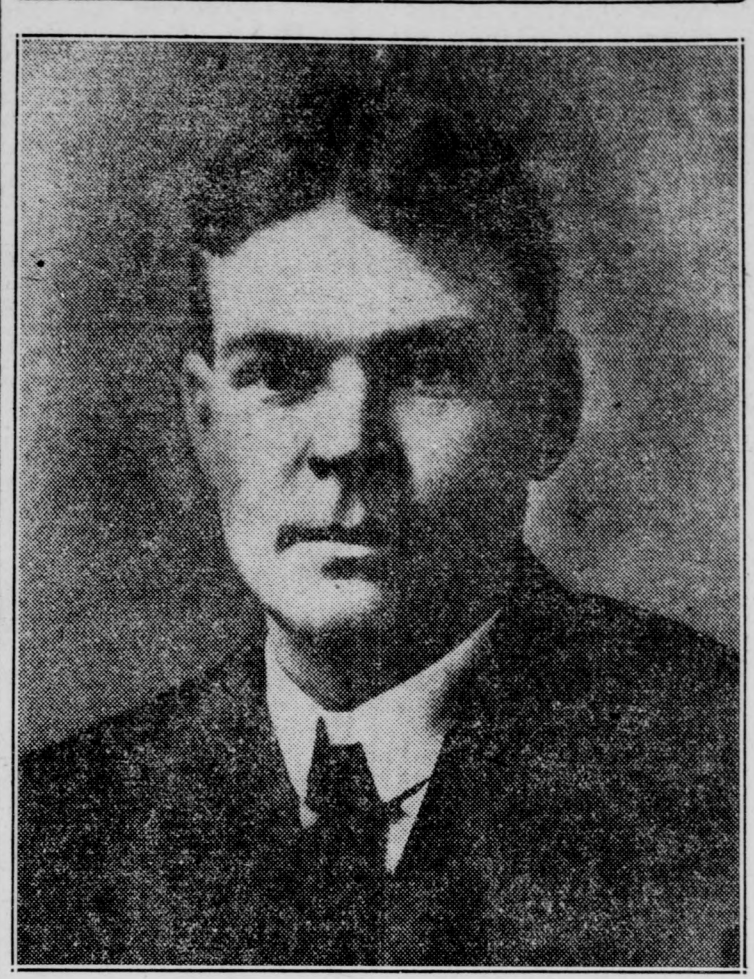

Mrs. Winnagle admitted today she had changed her mind, both about Winnagle and her theory of his disappearance. "I am positively sure now that he is not dead," she said.

"Are you sure he had the money from the sale of your Nevada property with him when he disappeared?" she was asked. "I believe so, but have not yet authentic proof. If he has, it is my loss." When asked if she would proceed further in trying to apprehend Winnagle, she said she was in straitened financial circumstances, and had found that it took money to trace down a husband in Southern California. "I had waited all my life, single," Mrs. Winnagle remarked, "waited until I was 42, for a companion. When I married Mr. Winnagle I thought I had such a companion. It was hard at first to believe it all. We had been married such a short time, although I had known him for eight years. We never had any quarrel or other reason for his leaving me like this."

Mrs. Winnagle told authorities her husband had left her at Reno to go through Nevada to dispose of highly valuable mining lands which she had inherited by the will of the late Nelson Main, wealthy Denver mining man. She said after their marriage in September she had signed her inheritance over to Winnagle. She believed he received more than $100,000 for the land if he completed the deal. Mrs. Winnagle is waiting for her husband at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Foster, Manhattan place, Verdugo City.

Directs New Company

The PITTS' POPULAR PLAYERS, with a cast of sixteen, will open tonight in the new tent theatre in Burbank. MR. PITTS, shown here, is owner and director of the new organization and his company will present the latest comedy-dramas direct from New York and Chicago.

Pitts' Popular Players composed of sixteen actors and actresses, and playing the latest comedy dramas direct from New York and Chicago, will open an engagement at the New Tent theatre, San Fernando road and Cedar street, Burbank, tonight.

Mr. Pitts, owner of the show and director, is a well known showman who has played all through the Middle West. He now resides in Glendale.

Mr. Pitts expresses his belief that theatre-goers of today are tired of moving pictures and are seeking good spoken drama, which, he says, he proposes to give them.

A feature of the new tent show will be the 8-piece women's novelty orchestra. The latest heating

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS DEFINED

Normal Hayhurst, Physical Instructor, Tells Need
Of Clean Sport

"Glendale Union High school is one of the best schools, morally, in California," was the claim made yesterday afternoon by Normal C. Hayhurst, athletic instructor and coach at the local high school, addressing the Parent-Teacher association meeting at Harvard High school.

Mr. Hayhurst's live talk on physical education in the schools came at the close of a brief talk by Mrs. H. V. Henry, chairman of the Mutual Benefit Reading circle, on some of the criticisms advanced today of athletics in the schools.

"We have been living in a machine age ever since 1860," declared Mr. Hayhurst. "Ours is a city age. There are twenty-five states that have compulsory physical education laws and California is one of them. It is our aim to put a first-class thinking machine in a healthy, vigorous body. To do this we develop in our work athletic games, corrective gymnastics and hygiene."

In developing his subject he emphasized fair play; outlined the periods of physical education work required of every student; and told of the system of exponents that is used in trying to get every boy and girl into athletic games in equal competition. He also told of the physical examinations made annually.

There were over 150 school patrons in attendance at the meeting directed by Mrs. W. R. Wichert, president of the P.-T.-A. A. George U. Moyle, principal, made school announcements and told of the visit of the City Council to both

HOLIDAY GIFT BUYING

"Do your Christmas shopping early" is an old story, yet new every year. It is oft repeated though seldom heeded. And yet, there are always some who, each year, save themselves and others much worry and nervous energy by getting their Christmas gifts out of the way early in the season.

Some say they cannot get into the spirit of Christmas or become interested in making or buying gifts early in the year. If they purchase a present they are sure to see something later on they like better. But, these people have no excuse for not buying now. With very few exceptions the Glendale stores have their holiday goods on display now; they have practically everything they will have this season. The stocks are complete, and have not been soiled by repeated handling, as many things will be before the night of December 24. The clerks have not yet been driven to insanity, and can give you some assistance and advice, should you wish it, in the selection of your gifts. At least they can give you service, which may not be possible when the stores are thronged with buyers in the hectic days just before Christmas.

Procrastination is one of the flagrant sins of humanity, and it is usually carried to greatest excess in the matter of Christmas shopping. Resolve to do better this year. Visit the Glendale stores now and see what they have to offer in the way of articles suitable to fill out your Christmas list. In a few weeks you are going to find it difficult to make your way through the crowds in the Glendale stores, and almost impossible to make purchases, for Glendale merchants are going to have the greatest holiday business they ever experienced. All signs point that way. The wise man and woman are doing their Christmas shopping now.

USE CARE IN STOPPING

A recent news item from Los Angeles again tells the old story of a man who was making repairs on his car along the road, stepping in front of another car and being killed. Such carelessness is very common, and is responsible for many deaths and injuries.

When it is necessary to do any repairing along the highway, it is an easy matter to push the car off the road, and well worth the time, even if it is necessary to ask for help. Everyone can recall instances of cars standing on the edge of the road and the driver and passengers walking around them while other cars are passing in both directions. Where the highway is not very wide there is great danger of accidents from such a practice, even in broad daylight, to say nothing of the hazard at night. Everyone has seen persons bending over a tire or engine, rise and step back and narrowly avert being struck by a passing car.

When a driver wishes to stop along the highway, he should make it a point to drive off the road as far as possible without going into the gutter, for there is danger to other cars as well as to his own where the highway is blocked in this way. And, he should not come to an abrupt stop, but slow up gradually and give the proper signal, for there is more than a chance of a collision with the car behind him.

So large a per cent of the toll of death in motor accidents is due to carelessness. Because you have taken chances a number of times, and got away with it, is no guarantee that you will be so fortunate another time. The driver of a car has an awful responsibility. The lives of his passengers and others on the road are in his keeping. He cannot use too much care.

GOOD ROADS VS. GASOLINE TAX

The State Highway commission is sponsoring a plan to increase the state gasoline tax to 3 or 4 cents a gallon, and a measure of this kind is almost certain to come up in the next legislature. Already a movement is on foot to fight it.

However, the average motorist will favor the advance in tax on gasoline, since it will mean better highways. He knows that roads cannot be built without money, and he would rather pay as he goes than shoulder heavier property tax or bond payments. There is a feeling among the people who walk, also, that those who use the roads should pay for them.

The demand for better highways all over the state is great, but the State Highway commission is without funds. The chief engineer of the commission says that to provide all the roads that should be constructed and all those desired by the people of the state, would cost between $300,000,000 and $400,000,000. Of course, the commission is not contemplating any such program of road building, but the figures indicate the demand for better highways.

The motorist has paid the 2-cent tax with little or no protest, but he may object to 3 or 4 cents. But, it looks as if he would have to pay it or go without better roads. Officials of counties and cities are being told now very emphatically that taxes are too high, and they are in no position to help the highway situation through additional property taxes or bond issues. This seems to put the problem of better roads up to the car owner.

ARE AMERICANS INSANE?

Quoting a "great writer" who said that 80 per cent of the American people are insane, but neglecting to give the name of the "great writer," a correspondent in a daily journal is inclined to believe in the truth of the charge, judging from the result of the recent election. It is his opinion that fear was the guiding factor that caused so many people to vote for Coolidge, and fear causes insanity, hence, the great majority of the American people are insane.

It is quite true that most of the people who voted for Coolidge did so through fear of what might happen to the country if he were not elected, stating the matter negatively. And, these same people would have voted for one of the other candidates had they feared that Coolidge would not have given the country the best administration. And, if this kind of fear makes us insane, then most of us are insane.

If you'll laugh 'til you're 80 you'll never die young.

LATEST PARKING PROBLEM IN THE EAST

The Flaming Sword

By DR. FRANK CRANE

We are told that when our parents were driven out of the Garden of Eden they could not get back because of an angel at the gate who waved a flaming sword.

This is typical of the fact that the Golden Age is always ahead of us, it is never behind us. In former times men always believed that the age of beauty and chivalry and idealism lay far in the past, but the tendency of modern thought is to place this in the future.

Every man, at some time or other, has looked upon the swine, the cattle and the dogs and envied them their low and careless existence. They seem so happy. They have nothing in the way of human worries to trouble them. We envy them their contentment.

A man is so constituted that he can never go back. The modern Garden of Eden lies ahead of us, not behind us.

All the peace and comfort and beauty and glory of life are to be won by going on through struggle and not by going backwards.

The iron law of progress is that the organism must struggle. Every obstacle is for us merely a challenge to our powers. In the exercise of those powers alone, and in their fruition, is found that happiness we desire.

It is useless for us to wish for the peace and contentment of the lower orders of life. We are compelled by our very superiority to go forward and find our joy in so doing.

The modern idea, which lies in placing the bliss of heaven before us, and not the Golden Age behind us, is responsible for the superiority and advancement of our modern civilization.

There is but one thing for the human being to do and that is to go forward. Relief, if it is to be found at all, is to be found in advancement and not in retreat.

Horoscope

Saturn dominates this day in benefic aspect. Mercury is adverse. It should be beneficial to farmers, for prices of food probably will soar.

Real estate and mines are subject to a promising direction of the stars.

The moon develops adverse aspects which tend to much emotional instability. Excess mental and physical activity may be common at this time when nerves may be apparently even among persons usually phlegmatic.

Warning is given against the poison of fatigue which may be extraordinarily harmful under this planetary government.

Danger of strikes that affect shipping is again foretold. Labor difficulties will prove advantageous to workers, it is predicted.

All the signs appear to forecast much mortality in the winter months.

At present intestinal difficulties should be guarded against and only pure water should be drunk. Excitement or dissatisfaction connected with the mail service is prognosticated. Clamor for improvement will be met with the charge that the public fails to support the aviation post.

Affliction of the sun, ruler of the tenth, is bad for royalty and there is a menacing sign for Great Britain.

Volcanic eruptions and floods in the south of Europe again are foretold.

Persons whose birthdates it is have the augury of a quiet, steady year that should bring happiness.

Children born on this day probably will be quick-witted and amusing, but unreliable for practical affairs. These subjects of Scorpio are often very talented.

Who's Who

Three times governor of North Dakota. Treasurer of the United States. The honors, distinction and power that go with the offices named came to John Burke.

Also came offers of financial opportunities from friends who knew that his prestige, experience in public affairs and wide acquaintance list would help them. And then the crash!

Now John Burke, "Honest John," has come back. Always a heavy favorite with citizens of North Dakota, who, although he is a member of the Democratic party while the state is overwhelmingly Republican, elected him three times as governor. "Honest John," as his friends have dubbed him, made a sweeping victory in the race for membership on the North Dakota supreme court bench.

"Honest John's" experience since the day he left North Dakota for Washington, as treasury head, April 1, 1913, are colorful. After serving in the treasury he returned to North Dakota. Lucrative offers from New York financiers caused him finally to associate himself with Louis Kados, New York broker, organizing the brokerage firm of Kados and Burke. The firm, caught in a swirl of brokerage failures, went to "the wall" on February 1, 1922.

It was here that "Honest John's" friends claim he lived up to his sobriquet. Every cent of his personal fortune was turned over by Burke to the firm's creditors, even a paid up life insurance policy, and at the age of 63 he faced life admittedly penniless.

Burke was born in Keokuk county, Iowa, February 25, 1859. He attended the public schools there and later was graduated from State University of Iowa with the degree of LL.B.

For a while he practiced law in Des Moines and in 1888 moved to North Dakota.

In 1889 he was elected to his first public office, that of county judge of Rolette county. Later he was sent to the house of representatives and subsequently to that, to the Senate.

THE CRIME OF DISCOVERY

(San Bernardino Sun)

It is not easy to grasp the attitude of the faculty of the University of California on the subject of the violation of law by the students. The night after a victorious football game a celebration was in progress at a beach resort where respect for law does not predominate. Late at night the place was raided by officers and liquor found on nearly every table. Several hundred citations to appear in court were issued but no arrests made because of the large number. Fictitious names were given in every instance and the next day not one was in court. Representations to this effect were made to the university authorities, and they are reported in the press to have taken the ground that if proof could be brought against any particular student he would be suspended. That may sound all right, but it merely means that if a student is caught he will be disciplined, but the university itself will take no steps to catch him. Unless some outsider bring proof he is safe from suspension.

Long ago one said of the Pharisees, that they made clean the outside of the cup, but did not worry about the rottenness inside. Are we to understand that the state institution is to be kept clean on the outside only, and that suspension will be given to those against whom proof is brought by those not connected with the institution and that up to that time the faculty will not bother about the conduct of the students? If it is an offense worthy of suspension for a student to be out late at night drinking liquor in violation of law, the faculty itself should be the most active in seeking to identify offenders and enforcing both discipline and sufficiently high standard of civility among the student body.

One trouble with this particular offense and with violations of traffic laws and other regulations is that too large a number, particularly young people, think it is all right if they can "get away with it" and that those in authority seem to hold that being found out is the real offense and that up to that time no action is required. There is no place where scrupulous regard for law and high standards of civic honor should be held and inculcated more than in our educational institutions, especially those maintained at public expense. If the highest ideals of citizenship are not held and exemplified there the outlook of high ideals elsewhere is not a good one.

Today's Poem

THE EUCALYPTI MASSACRE
A gruesome story is being told
(It horror still our valley fills)
Of the ruthless slaughter of the noble guard,

The sentinels of Silver Lake Hills.

For years these silver-speared lances stood,
Keeping loyal watch o'er mountain and plain;

On duty at dawn, midnight and noon,
In storm, sunshine and rain.

Proudly these stalwart knights of the hills
Fluttered their banners in greeting to you,

Joyfully lifting their brow to the skies,
Saluting the stars, the dawn and the dew.

But—one night—when all the city asleep,
A clan of Realtors met—and barred the doors of their caverns deep,

Where they plotted the doom of the guard.

Then—without warning or challenge—they charged
At earliest dawn up the hills,

To maim and to slay the silent guard,
The pride of Silver Lake Hills.

Presenting their silver-tipped lances,
Silent, defiant, the sentinels stood

Awaiting a foe who no mercy knew,
No quarter gave—with ax and fire he slew.

Once more the silver-tongued lancers whispered a prayer,
Then, stoic, heroic, without murmur or sound,

Waving their emerald banners, they fell,
Not yielding an inch of their ground.

For days their slender, cold bodies lay
Denuded, stripped of their armor and gun,

Uncovered, unburied—they say—
'Neath a glaring and pitiless sun.

Shame on the land whose beauty they shield,
Shame on the clan who set fire

To their bodies, piled high in a field,
A hideous funeral pyre.

But by the leer and glare of its flame,
In the smoke and gloom of the fight,

The spirits of the woodlands came,
Calling woe on the clan in the night.

No stone or eloquent tongue,
In song or story, will tell

Of the time, the cause and the place
Where the guard so valiant, heroically fell.

MUSIC ASSET TO EMPLOYER, CLAIM

Executive Secretary L. A. Music Federation Gives Address at Meet

"Music is an asset of very real and definite value to the employer and an asset of even more definite value to the worker. It has stepped down from its highbrow pedestal as an exclusive pleasure for the cultured few and has become a companion of all the people," declared Miss Antonette Sabel, executive secretary of the Los Angeles Music Federation and member of the Los Angeles district music committee, speaking this afternoon before the presidents' council of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

Miss Sabel, who is a vivacious speaker, heartily interested in her work, spoke on "Music in Industry." She said:

"We have come to realize the utility of music. Its relation to industry is fast becoming the attention of the heads of industrial plants, big and little, every day. Those having several plants, and who have tested the value of music in one establishment, adopt it for all, while the workers are finding that music brings a refreshing break into the monotony of the day's tasks, and are welcoming it in steadily increasing numbers.

Constant Development

"The constant development of machinery and the resulting many divisions of labor have, unfortunately, turned most forms of manual labor from art into a discipline. The craftsman who takes pride and finds joy in his skill is rapidly disappearing. A large amount of the world's work has ceased to be a creative effort and has become a soulless drudgery. It has, therefore, become a vital necessity to introduce into the life of industrial workers a recreational program, centering about those things which give every individual a chance, at least in a small degree, to express himself. This is not only a matter of human interest, but of actual business importance, because anything that makes for happiness and a contented mind, automatically increases efficiency and productive power.

"Today in Los Angeles there are twenty-eight organizations actively fostering and carrying on a definite music program. There are twenty-six other organizations considering the adoption of immediate programs. Los Angeles boasts eight industrial bands, the membership of several of them numbering over fifty pieces. It boasts a Los Angeles Choral society, made up of all the units of the individual industrial choruses.

"Industrial music is not an experiment, but a substantial asset to the activities of the city of Los Angeles.

Threefold Blessing

"The State Federation of Music clubs has created an industrial music department, which automatically places the director of this bureau on the state board. The National Federation of Music clubs also created an industrial music department, thereby placing the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce in charge, not only of local development, but state and national as well. This indicates

SERVICE KEYNOTE FOR LITERATURE

Club Women Hear Endeavors Of This Department From Mrs. Carr

"Service" was the keynote sounded this afternoon by Mrs. Herbert Carr, newly-appointed chairman of literature for the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs, at the presidents' council at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse. Mrs. Carr, with Mrs. Jack Valley, head of the literature department of the Los Angeles Ebelle club, represented the literature department on the program devoted to fine arts.

"The literature department of the district is to endeavor to make the literature we read serve life," said Mrs. Carr. "There is an old principle in psychology about relating the unknown to the known in presenting any subject, and in our newer day we find that only as the new in the literature we read connects up with something we already know, some previous knowledge or experience in our own lives does it really touch us, really hold our interest.

Practical Side

"There is also a practical side to our department endeavor. We are trying to do something distinctly helpful each month. In October we discussed Children's Book week. For November we had a conference on 'Books for Christmas Gifts.' At the next department conference, December 19, Mrs. Henry Goodrich, state chairman of literature, will tell us of 'Some Recent Biographies.'"

"In the department conferences we are also having three-minute talks from chairmen of various clubs, telling of the literature work in their individual clubs."

Evening News Thanked By Community Service

A. L. Baird, president of Community Service, sends the following self-explanatory communication to A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Glendale Evening News:

"Dear Mr. Cowan—Please permit me to express the appreciation of Community Service for the splendid publicity which you gave the regional conference of the Southern California Elstetdtd, which was held here in Glendale last Saturday afternoon and evening on our invitation."

"The stand that Los Angeles is taking, and it is reaching all other cities, in a concerted drive to awaken the spiritual and civic nature of the industrial classes. It is creating a more sincere American and citizen."

"If we were to admit all benefits to the industry only, we would have said much, but the influence does not stop there. Each individual worker carries the gospel of such joyous education into his home, affecting the atmosphere there and the disposition of his family, and from there the power for good spreads to the community in general, thereby bringing a threefold blessing."

Miss Sabel also is director of the bureau of industrial music for the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. She said it is her aim to make Los Angeles "the city of singing toilers."

CLUB WOMAN IN PLEA FOR TREES

Glendale Member In Talk At Presidents' Council For Giant Redwoods

Eloquent plea for the preservation of California's historical giants, the redwoods, was made this morning at the presidents' council of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs, by Mrs. R. W. Meeker of 1320 East Colorado street, district chairman of the Memorial Redwood grove fund. Mrs. Meeker's lecture was illustrated by stereopticon slides showing various stages in life of redwood trees.

When the California clubwomen met at Eureka two years ago they created a fund of $60,000 to preserve a memorial grove of redwoods. With the demands of the biennial convention during the past year, the Redwood Memorial grove fund reached approximately $3,000. This year one of the great aims of the California Federation will be to complete this fund.

"When I looked about for a chairman of the Redwood Memorial grove fund in Los Angeles district, I selected Mrs. Meeker," said Mrs. Toll recently, "because I knew of no other California woman who had California's great trees and history, and romance nearer her heart."

Mrs. Meeker's Plea

Mrs. Meeker said: "Have you seen those monarchs, the majestic redwood trees, that line the highway as it winds northward along the Pacific? There have they stood for centuries. Tall and sturdy were they when the Christ Child smiled from His manger cradle. They have bravely weathered the equinoctial storms and have boldly fronted that dread scourge, forest fire, withstanding their onslaught.

"But a deadly enemy is encompassing them. The axe is rapidly heaving them down; and as they fall, they groan. 'Why have ye O people of California, lifted no hand to save us? Know ye not that for centuries to come our limbs, our sturdy trunks and our bosky foliage would yield for ye a grateful shade and protection? But ye raise no voice in protest of our destruction, and we are doomed, unless ye speak!'"

Monument to Club Women

"Far-visioned club women planned, more than a year ago, to select the finest grove, to buy it with the dollars and cents lovingly contributed by eager club women, and to dedicate this grove to the sweet memory of the many women who have labored in public work, especially in the clubs of the state, and who have now laid down the burden of the active career and have passed on to another sphere."

"Hie we not, all of us, friends we would like to honor by a gift of appreciation, even though slighter than the measure of our gratitude? In no more fitting fashion may we rear a memorial to these women who have labored through the burden and heat of the day, that we might enter into the fruit of their labors."

"Let us feel it a privilege to share in this work, the perpetuation of a grove of magnificent trees in honor of pioneer club women."

BANKING METHOD FOR WOMEN TOLD

Speaker at Club Council Stresses Importance of Business Affairs

Southland club women gathered this morning at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse for the presidents' council of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs, learned from a business woman some of the business principles every club woman should know and follow in her banking activities.

Miss Grace S. Stoermer, director of women's banking department, Bank of Italy, Los Angeles, was the speaker. From her wealth of business experience, she stressed the importance of women knowing banking methods in the transaction of their business affairs.

In presenting her subject she discusses proper means and urgent necessity for identification; opening of new accounts; types of accounts carried; the nature of the check; pass-books and check books; closing accounts; and many other interesting details of contacts with banking institutions. She said:

Essential Part

"If you were asked to express your ideas about woman and her relation to her bank, each of you would doubtless have a different answer. Perhaps you would tell only some special way in which you have known a particular bank used either by yourself or by some member of your family; perhaps you would tell of the personal contact you have had with some banker; but, would you tell of the economic principles underlying the very existence of the banking institution? The bank plays such an essential part in the life of every community that every person should have a clear conception of what it is and how it functions. My purpose today is to show you how a bank could and should be utilized by each individual of the community."

"To understand the reasons for many of the requirements made by banks in conducting their business, I think that the women, as well as men, should understand just what the fundamental principles of the banking system are. Our complex life, the great volume of business done and the delegation of details to the shoulders of subordinates by the officials of the banks, tend to cloud the real function of the bank in obscurity and create the impression to the public that the bank is a cold, formidable money grinding machine. This, however, is far from the actual condition."

"A bank is the foundation of our entire modern economic system and as such should and does desire to create a friendly relationship between the members of the community so that they will benefit and profit by its existence. It is my purpose at all times to instill this idea into the minds of the women, particularly, and to make them realize that they are a part of this economic system and should utilize its methods and benefit therefrom."

Holds Responsibility

"It is surprising how many details of banking are known by the public and it will be my pleasure today to tell you some of these interesting methods of procedure."

"The complete responsibility for considerable sums of money spent in the up-keep of the family and frequently, too, for commercial enterprises, rests with increasing weight on the shoulders of American women, and, as home making is the most important vocation of the American woman, because upon it depends the prosperity of our nation and the safety and happiness of our future citizens, the women of today must know finance—not only the cost per pound of butter and meat but the why of that cost. You women are the buyers of the nation and consequently it behooves you to know how to buy! Your bank can and will be the medium for shouldering this responsibility. Learn how to use your bank!"

Hundreds Meet Here for District Council, Hear Prominent Speakers

White and Juanita Claycomb, were heartily applauded.

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, occupied a seat on the platform. Members of the club were in evidence in directing the district delegates, and aiding in the procedure of the council. Mrs. Homer D. Lockwood, chairman of ways and means, and a large group of club members, arranged the noon luncheon.

Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, president, and delegates from the Parliamentary Law club of Glendale, and Mrs. Carrie Campbell, president, and delegates from the Thursday Afternoon club of Glendale, were in attendance at the council.

Accounts of the addresses of the morning and afternoon sessions will be found in adjoining columns in this issue of The Glendale Evening News.

Franklin Canyon Road Celebration Postponed

Postponement of the celebration of the opening of Franklin Canyon road, which was to have taken place this coming Saturday, was announced today by O. J. Renfrew, secretary of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of San Fernando valley, under whose auspices the celebration had been planned. Postponement was due to plans which are under way for a similar celebration when Mulholland drive is completed. It was the decision of the association's directors that a joint observance of the completion of two great highways would be more appropriate. Detailed announcement concerning the joint celebration will be given later, Secretary Renfrew stated.

Women Stage 'Carnival Of Months' Today

St. Mark's Episcopal church guild hall presents a medley of joyous beauty, at the annual bazaar of the Women's Guild, which began at 10 o'clock this morning and will continue until tonight at 10 o'clock and be held again from 10 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock tomorrow night.

A carnival of months is seen in the arrangement of the booths, decorated to represent the months of the calendar year. In addition, each booth has some attractive name, indicative of the month represented. Articles of varied usefulness and beauty are on sale. Kiddles will be charmed with the circus tent, while the grown-ups will find tempting articles on every hand. Coffee, doughnuts, cakes and sandwiches are being sold.

Program Tonight
Mrs. Charles A. Parker has arranged the program to be presented tonight. Those taking part will be Misses Irene Soos and Thelma Rogers in piano duets; Miss Winifred Parker, soprano; Jack Wright, tenor; Mrs. Gladys Gibbs Sherman, soprano, in vocal solos. On Friday night Miss Lila Litch will present the program.

Mrs. B. O. Holbrook is general chairman of the bazaar, and is being assisted by committees of the Guild women.

Careless Youth Killed; Safety First, Is Plea

By CHRISTINE VAHEY
Wilson Intermediate School, A-7
Thomas was a boy who was never careful. He always tried to show the "gang" what narrow escapes he could take without getting hurt.

One day he was playing "hooky," and stole Johnnie Smith's bicycle from the shed at the school.

He rode around town for about two hours, when he suddenly thought of a plan. "It will be great sport," said Thomas, so he rode down to the south side of town. The bridge which held the tracks was about seventy feet above the ground, and there was a semaphore at either end of this bridge.

When the bridge was being crossed the red light was on, and when empty, the green light was on.

It grew dark and the fog was so thick he could hardly see his hand before him. As he neared the bridge the red light was on, but in the fog he did not notice it. Presently he could hear the street car approaching. Would the motorman see him?

The motorman did not see him, and he was knocked off the bridge into the valley below.

One look would have saved the possible danger of the street car, the grief of the motorman, the heartbreak of the mother and the loss of a life.

Are you going to be careless too? You can avoid accidents by watching your step. Look both ways when you cross the street or the car tracks. Do not try to do "fancy stunts" like Thomas did, and lose your life too. Don't jay-walk and don't skate in the streets or on the side walks.

Other accidents occur besides those with automobiles and street cars, so "watch your step." You can't be too careful.

Recently while on a trip the Franklin Camel II, famous air-cooled scout car, made a tour of the Calaveras big trees and Lake Tahoe, and called at Donner lake. The spot at the eastern end of this charming lake is where the ill-fated Donner party spent the winter of 1846-47, more than half of them perishing from starvation. A monument portraying a pioneer with his family straining their eyes westward to the summit of Emigrant pass, a few miles distant, marks the historic spot and was erected by the Native Sons of the Golden West.

In speaking of this tragedy in California's early history, E. S. Peggs, manager of the Motor Sales Co., 406 East Colorado boulevard, Glendale Franklin dealer, said the Donner party, ninety strong, were caught in a severe snowstorm at Donner lake and forced to build cabins at that spot and wait for relief, a picked party pushing on up over the pass to bring food and help from the settlements. Meanwhile some of the party died and when the relief returned they had hardly enough food to last the imprisoned families but a few days. Two more parties were sent out and on the third relief sent in from the valley the survivors were brought out on snowshoes, but only forty-eight lived to see the settlements.

Good Books Big Help In Refreshing People

By DUGALD BLUE
Union High School, B-12
Reading is a delightful habit. It brings forgetfulness to the worried; soothes the sad; thrills the adventurer; eases the mind of the tired.

Reading is a land of romance and adventure, seriousness and science, through which we may travel, seeing and not hearing, forgetting and not observing. One must not only know how to read but must be an intelligent reader in order to vote when amendments are on the ballot. Every one knows that amendments to the Constitution are always written in legal language and are very hard to understand for that reason. Therefore, from an individual standpoint education is an utmost necessity.

Every day we change in character somewhat. Either we become better or worse. Should we read cheap, trashy novels often, our change would be for the latter. It is up to us to feed our minds with books that may be thought over; books that will make us observe and compare.

Whether it be the worried looking for forgetfulness, or the tired looking for rest and pleasure, he should weigh and consider; for, will not forgetfulness, pleasure, and rest be afforded? How? By changing the course of our minds, taking from them the worries and hardships of life and allowing them to devour something different, and yet, beneficial.

Everyone has a different opinion as to good books. Whether it be the astronomer reading his books on science, or the modern flapper reading "Monsieur Beaucaire," he or she should read observingly, to benefit, thereby elevating his character a rung. Francis Bacon once wrote: "Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be digested. . . ." Can we not obtain and digest those few?

Plenty Of Opportunity To Secure Education

By MYRTLE CROOK
Union High School, B-11
There is no excuse for any person not to have a thorough education, at least not to know how to read and write, for we have many excellent grammar schools, high schools, and colleges or universities extensively spread throughout every state in the Union. Still it is most amazing to hear of the large percentage of illiteracy in the United States. Education is a necessity in a democracy. How could we govern ourselves intelligently without first having received an education? If a man did not know how to read, could he keep himself informed of the occurrences in his own country, not mentioning foreign countries. There is always a time in a man's life when he finds his curiosity aroused concerning the modes of living and thinking of other men. Then, too, it would be dull if we could not spend some of our leisure time in reading the thoughts and ideas of others.

If at some time we happened to be separated from our relatives and dear friends, we could not communicate with them unless we were able to read and write. ## Describes Footrace In Which Watch Is Prize

By JOSEPH BURRIS
Columbus Avenue School, B-6
One morning my father read in the paper that there was to be a footrace at La Crescenta for the boys and girls under 12 years of age whose parents had bought lots at the La Crescenta tract. There was to be a wrist watch for the prize. My father had bought seven lots. There were eight or ten good runners there. When the race started off he shot a gun and it frightened me so that I could hardly move. But soon I recovered and caught up with the other boys. We had to run a mile and a half, all the way around the tract and through the center twice. When we were half way around the tract, a large boy was leading. But at the beginning of the home stretch he got sick and had to drop out with six other boys. This left two other boys and myself running on the home stretch. One boy named Robert Pierre was close behind me, but he was slowly losing ground. Then I crossed the line. The wrist watch was mine. When we went home we tried to fool my mother by saying the boys could run too fast for me.

TRAFFIC CONGESTION SERIOUS PROBLEM IN L. A.

REGULATIONS CONFUSING DRIVERS

Police Endeavoring to Make Streets of Metropolis Safe For All

By GIL A. COWAN
Written for The Evening News.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.— Traffic, its sickening surge, its inhuman mechanics, its countless thousands of cars, its pedestrian problem, its maddening roar—

Traffic too heavy for the streets of yesterday, beyond control of mind or matter, one continuous performance, with numberless crashes—

Traffic and its toll. Traffic, Traffic, TRAFFIC!

City Outgrows Self

In a little board-up office in an old brick building annexed to the central police station of Los Angeles sits Captain Cleveland
Heath, chief inspector of the traffic division, little czar of an army of footmen, cossacks and mounted troops, each and every one doing his humble part in trying to stem the tide.

A day, an hour, even a few minutes in that traffic bureau on West First street would convince the most skeptical that not only is there something wrong with man-made laws, but Los Angeles has simply outgrown itself in the number of motorcars.

Hundreds of arrests have been made so far this week in a campaign to make the streets safe for pedestrians. Police courts are jammed, and people are paying their fines any time between 8 a.
m. and midnight, and they are stiff fines, some of the sentences calling for jail terms.

Is New Policy
Two interesting sidelights are presented by the morning papers on the traffic situation. In The Examiner Captain Heath is quoted as saying:

"It is not quite correct to call this a 'drive' against motor law violators. A drive comes to an end. This is a new policy of the (Turn to page 8, col. 4)

Display Traces of Wit In Safety Suggestions

Drivers who believe they have heard every safety admonition regarding automobiles are likely to change their minds if they have the opportunity, by glancing through some of the suggestions that come to the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

These are pungent, varied, forceful and sometimes funny.
A few of the choicest recent suggestions are as follows:

Before an auto turns turtle all the passengers should get out.

The number of a car should be 6699 and should be worn upside down.

For the benefit of the man behind, the thoughtful auto-ist will mix perfume with his gasoline.

It is considered very bad form for a man driving an auto to try to drive between the headlights of another auto. This is liable to seriously damage the crank handle.

Two automobiles should pass on either side of each other. Autos should always stop abruptly for washouts or burned fuses. It is not proper for an auto to turn the corner on two wheels.

One honk of the horn means
"cross street," two honks mean "stand still, I'll get you coming back," three honks, "get your oil ice wagon out of the way." A dozen honks, "help, I'm out of gasoline."

PARKER & BLACK WILL MOVE SOON

Local Exide Battery Firm Plans To Occupy New Quarters Dec. 1

Parker and Black, 113 West Harvard street, distributors for Exide batteries, expect to move into their new quarters, 217 West Colorado boulevard, about December 1. They will have about twice the present amount of floor space.

The business is under the personal supervision of H. M. Parker and P. A. Black, both practical and skilled men.

In addition to the battery line,
they maintain brake and electrical departments and carry a complete line of accessories. In the battery charging department the constant potential method is used, whereby each battery is charged individually, instead of in series, making it impossible to damage a battery by excess flow of current or overcharging, according to Mr. Parker.
This firm is also distributor for Lincoln shock absorbers and official Raybestos brake service station; Brown reflector distributors and official headlight adjusting station.

STUDEBAKER AUTO ON NEW SPEEDWAY

Earl Cooper To Drive Mount In Thanksgiving Race
Inaugurating Bowl

A Studebaker special will be entered in the Culver City auto races on Thanksgiving day, driven by Earl Cooper, race leader this year, according to Don Parker,
of the Parker Motor Co., Studebaker dealers for Glendale, 245 South Brand boulevard.

Cooper has been high man during 1924 and Mr. Parker thinks his only possible rival would be Tommy Milton. The Thanksgiving races will mark the opening of the new Culver City track, which replaces the one burned
some time ago.

Mr. Parker reports an unusually brisk business the past ten days, more used cars being moved than for some months past.
This he attributes as a return to normalcy after the pre-election slump, and predicts 1925 as one of the best the country has ever seen.

Salmon which have died after spawning furnish the eagles of

STATE AUTO OWNERS IN TOP SPOT

California Motorists Have Many Reasons To Be Thankful People

The automobile owner in this section has more to be thankful for than the motorist in any other nook of the world, according to statisticians of the Automobile Club of Southern California. That this is not an idle boast is attested by some of the facts given in support of this broad statement. These include:

A greater number of days in the year when motoring is enjoyable.

The finest system of good roads in the United States.

The most thoroughly signposted highways on earth.

The greatest variety of scenery in a given space.

Absence of extremes of heat and cold.

More service stations than any other similar and equal area.

Lower cost of automobile insurance in the United States.

Closest proximity of mountains, plains and sea.

Widest familiarity of population with needs of the motorist.

Largest number of automobiles per capita in the world.

Most places of interest to visit within easy motoring distance.

Most diversified market for purchasing cars and accessories.

Greatest gasoline producing area in the world.

Two thousand miles of main roads daily covered by fleet of highway patrol service cars.

Reasonable state taxes on motor vehicles.

Maximum wear out of car, both mechanically and outside finish.

Auto Camps' Record

Leads in number of automobile camps.

Is the gateway to millions of millions of acres of national forests and the greatest of national parks.

Is the southern terminus of the world's longest motoring road,
the Pacific Coast Highway.

Provides maximum satisfaction for outdoor enthusiasts who love mountain climbing, fishing, hunting and yachting.

Is the home of the world's largest motoring organization and greatest in point of service—the Automobile Club of Southern California.

If You Stand Test In This Class You Are Expert Driver

Are you a good automobile driver?

You may think you are,
but to qualify the following tests must be passed, according to experts of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

A really first class driver is known by:

His skillful steering.

His ease of handling.

His thoughtfulness of pedestrians.

His properly adjusted steering apparatus.

His strict obedience to every traffic regulation.

His extensive and intelligent use of arm signals.

His use of the brakes before he gets to the curve.

His protection of his motor; his use of second and first speeds.

His alternate use of foot and hand brakes on long grades and in emergencies.

His respect for railway crossings; he stops, looks and shifts gear before he is actually on the tracks.

PERMANENT TOPS PLACED ON NASH

New Feature Gives Close Fit
For Glass Enclosures; Proving Popular

"Though but a few weeks have gone by since Nash introduced the new 'All Season' models with permanent tops and glass enclosures, sales figures compiled to date show a brisk demand for this distinctly Nash innovation," said Charles McDaniel, McDaniel Motor Co., 1234 South Brand boulevard, Glendale Nash distributor. "With their permanent tops these Nash cars are specially designed and built for the glass enclosure, thus insuring perfect fit and the utmost comfort in this type of auto."

Mr. McDaniel said all the annoying features of the old style tops, their rattles, noises, leaks and draughts, have been overcome and by designing the entire structure as a whole instead of building a body and creating an after-thought for a top, Nash engineers avoided the unsightly contours, errors of fit and inaccuracies of line that characterize many top designs. Mr. McDaniel also said there is no mica or isinglass in these models, the windows being made of heavy glass, assuring clear vision at all times.

Reo Sport Roadster Is Called Real Knockout

A real "knockout" is the way the new Reo sport roadster is described. Latest reports from the factory in Lansing are to the effect that first shipments will be made very shortly as the factory is about ready to start production of this model. Quite a number of these roadsters have been ordered by Southern California dealers.

NON-STOP RUN IN 1915 IS RECALLED

Account Of Trip Published In Financial Paper Is Given Dealers

A few days ago William J.
Schaeffe, 1859 South San Fernando road, editor and founder of American Globe, a financial paper published in Los Angeles, dropped into Smith Bros., Glendale distributors for Chandler and Cleveland cars, 1119 South
Brand boulevard, and gave Alfred
D. Smith a copy of his paper of November, 1915, in which prominent space is given a story of the performance of a stock Chandler touring car which made a run from Tia Juana, Mexico, to Blaine, Canada, a distance of 1893.5 miles, in 120 hours of continuous running. Following is an excerpt from the story:

"In 120 hours of continuous travel, a Chandler six touring car,
'stock' in every detail save for two additional headlights and taped springs, traveled from Tia Juana, Mexico, to Blaine, Canada, without a single stop of either wheels or motor. According to official observation, but one pint of water was added to the original capacity of the radiator during the entire trip. The gasoline consumption averaged sixteen miles to each gallon. The oil consumption averaged 200 miles to each quart. The Chandler had been run approximately 2000 miles before making the trip.

"Aw, my dear chap, but wasn't it awfully fatiguing?" Thus spoke a true son of Britain in the refreshment room of the palatial
Hotel Vancouver, in Vancouver, Canada. Dust-covered, weary, unbathed and unshaven for 120 hours, five hardy Californians had just completed the most remarkable automobile trip in the annals of long-distance motoring. They had traveled in a Chandler six stock touring car from Mexico to Canada—1893.5 long miles—without a single stop! The Chandler car was in charge of Claude
H. Hunter, driver, assisted by Don Smith, Ben Knoch and Andrew Kooler, relief drivers; Al G.

Watch Your Brakes Or California Law Will Get You Sure

Do your brakes squeal?
Do you skid your rear wheels when bringing car to stop?

Have you noticed that the brake on your right rear wheel seems to take hold more quickly?

Does your right rear tire show evidence of far more wear than the left tire?

Do your brakes grab or seize when you have made a heavy application?

Does a sudden application of your brakes cause the car to swerve to one side?

If your car does any of the above mentioned little stunts, then your brakes are out of adjustment.

It does not necessarily mean that you should have your brakes relined, but for your own protection you should have the brakes carefully adjusted.

The National Automobile club advises motorists that the California Vehicle act is very explicit as to brake faculties on cars, stating that
"Every motor vehicle operated upon a public highway shall be provided at all times with brakes which shall be adequate to promptly check the speed of and to stop such motor vehicle."

Poland's new coins will be quitoes.

Authentic news has reached Nash dealers on the coast that gasoline in England is 45 cents a gallon and that the automobile tax is $5 per horsepower, so that even the wee Fords have to pay as much as $100 a year tax.

Orange Sees Change

And Justice of the Peace
Charles Kuchel at Anaheim in Orange county says that a more strict compliance with traffic and motor vehicle laws is noted. But 95 per cent of the infractions are committed by people living outside of the city. They do not slow down for traffic intersections.
They do not want to look in the shop windows, perhaps, judge.

Motorists are exercising more caution than ordinarily, several Orange county officers note, and
a marked decline in accidents has resulted.

OUT-OF-TOWN SPEEDERS BLAMED

Every Community Willing to Blame Visitors for Most Traffic Wrongs

By SPARE TIRE

Written for The Evening News

Somebody has labelled speeding
the pneumatic plague.

Every community has its own problem, but most of the officials are willing to blame visitors in their cities for violations of traffic laws. Wealthy folk from Hollywood and Pasadena have been made particular prey for motor-cops.

Ranchers from Riverside and Imperial counties are taken in the toils by Los Angeles for infractions of the metropolitan ordinances and Orange county has been the bane of all motorists.

Now it seems the worm has turned. Police Chief Lester Des-grandchamp of Santa Barbara has this to say:

"It's local people out on night
joy rides that we have to arrest for speeding. We are not having much trouble with out-of-town drivers. We find that the majority of people passing through Santa Barbara on the coast route obey the laws."

Poland's new coins will be minted in the United States.

strict compliance with traffic and
motor vehicle laws is noted. But 95 per cent of the infractions are committed by people living outside of the city. They do not slow
down for traffic intersections.
They do not want to look in the
shop windows, perhaps, judge.

Motorists are exercising more
caution than ordinarily, several Orange county officers note, and
a marked decline in accidents has resulted.

Walter P. Chrysler Announces—

25 Miles to the Gallon

58 Miles per Hour

5 to 25 Miles in 8 Seconds

With a full sense of the seriousness of the statement—carefully weighing the meaning of every word—Chrysler-Maxwell engineers, without reservation, promise you, in this new Maxwell, performance surpassing in every essential any four-cylinder car in the world today.

To make that sweeping assurance more definite and specific—we promise you in speed, in power, in pliability of power, in swift response, and even more particularly in riding steadiness and comfort, results no four-cylinder car has yet been able to attain.

To go still further into details, the new Maxwell has speed capacities far beyond any car of its type and class, and in the rare instances in which they may have to be used,
will register them with an absence of vibration without precedent in four-cylinder construction.

Chrysler-Maxwell engineers have been actuated by the conviction that in addition to its inherent and natural economies, the four-cylinder principle possessed possibilities of power and speed capable of being translated into ease and steadiness which have never been fully developed.

They set out to overcome what have all too readily been accepted in the past as limitations in the four-cylinder engine and to convert these limitations into positive advantages.

No one can doubt that success has crowned their efforts, after even so short an experience as a half hour's driving demonstration of the car.

Judged by the unusual and extraordinary character of its performance, this Maxwell is literally a new and immeasurably better type of four-cylinder motor car.

New Models Are Shown In Glendale

The new line of Maxwell cars, recently announced by the factory, is on display at the salesrooms of the GLENDALE MOTOR CAR CO., 124 West Colorado street, Maxwell and Chrysler dealers. Two of the types produced by the factory engineers are shown in the accompanying photograph. Balloon tires are standard equipment on the new cars.

The appearance of the latest Maxwell, that has been eagerly awaited by motorists ever since it was rumored that the Chrysler and Maxwell engineers were at work on a new line, is announced by Lyman P. Clark of the Glendale Motor Car Co., 124 West Colorado street, Maxwell and Chrysler dealer, who is now showing the latest models of this car at his showrooms.

The experiments and tests carried out by the engineers show that the outstanding features of the new Maxwell are a gasoline average of 25 miles to the gallon, a speed of 58 miles an hour and an acceleration from 5 to 25 miles in eight seconds.

"This new Maxwell," says Mr. Clark, "represents in a four-cylinder car the ideas of the same engineering and manufacturing group that designed and produced the Chrysler. The promise of speed, power, absence of vibration and increased riding ease and comfort have been more than fulfilled, showing results that no other four-cylinder car has yet been able to attain."

Bodies of all models, as well as the chassis, show sweeping improvements, both in appearance and in general construction. They are lower, with running boards, and have balloon tires as standard on all models, while the new instrument board adds to the trim appearance of the car. Duo finish is standard on all the new models except the sport touring, which still comes in the gray-green shade used in the past.

The prices remain the same as before, with the exception of the sedan, in which there is a slight increase, in view of the finer body and equipment.

Maxwell, Chrysler Cars Going Like Hot Cakes

DETROIT, Nov. 20.—The shipment of Maxwell and Chrysler cars in October exceeded that of the record October of 1923 by 49 per cent, according to Maxwell officials. Unfilled orders total over 10,000, an increase of 60 per cent as compared with last year.

Population of the Irish Free State now is 3,000,000.

FOLEY PILLS REACHED THE SORE SPOT

Mrs. Ellen Reighard, South Fork, Pa., writes: "I had been suffering with my kidneys and nothing seemed to touch the aching spot until I procured FOLEY PILLS, with wonderful results." FOLEY PILLS, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, gently and thoroughly flush and cleanse the kidneys and help to eliminate poisonous waste matter. Try a bottle today and you will be well pleased with the relief obtained. The use of FOLEY PILLS increases kidney activity.

traffic division of the police department, and it is here to stay. We are not going to make a great noise for a few weeks and then let up on the speeder. It is a permanent arrangement and the careless driver who thinks that in a month or so he can scoot around again at forty miles without being bothered is due for a surprise."

He goes on to state that all a motorist has to do is to obey the signs giving the speed limits.

Doubts Sincerity

Harry Carr in the Times has this to say:

"It remains to be seen how long this present fury of the speed cops will last. In all probability it will go the way of the other incredibly silly 'speed campaigns' of the police."

"The police judges will grow down upon the culprits; the cooties over in the hoosegow will have a taste of unaccustomed luxury in the way of aristocratic meat—and everybody will have a grand time."

"Then they will get tired of the melodrama and everything will go on just as before."

Captain Is Busy

And the cynical writer caustically adds this:

"It is a strange commentary on our police methods when the cops have to look in the paper every morning before he takes his car out, to find out whether the laws are in force—that day."

Now, regarding the enforcement of the laws. The writer spent an hour waiting for Captain Heath Tuesday afternoon to get a line on the situation. Finally, he learned the captain was at the city electrician's office finding out what was wrong with the downtown signals when the bells didn't ring, or something like that; and his wife was waiting for him, so he deferred the interview.

In the meantime Captain Gifford treated the writer and others in a cordial manner, settling one dispute between two irate wreckers of motorcars who were dragged into the station to avoid a street fight.

Mexicans and orientals driving in the downtown districts get all tangled up with the traffic laws, which they cannot "sabe" on the signposts. One boy brought an interpreter along with him and they were sent away with admonitions to learn that no parking is allowed between 4 and 6 p. m. Another youth from Alhambra breezed into the bureau with a nice, fresh tag setting forth that he, too, had parked after 4 o'clock on Second street near Spring street. He heard the Mexican boy getting advice and was under the impression that he, too, would escape with a copy of the ordinance.

"You can read, can't you?" queried the desk sergeant.

Admission that he could brought forth a citation to police court, where he can explain to the judge Friday that a policeman told him it was "all right to park there."

The Alhambra youth deserved the citation, perhaps, because the officer had named the former legal owner of the car on the ticket and not the youth. Yes, he was a willing customer who didn't know enough to stay away from trouble and it was very evident to the desk sergeant that it would be a privilege for Alhambra to contribute to Los Angeles police court coffers.

Keep Car at Home

Insofar as suburbanites are concerned there is only one answer to the Los Angeles traffic situation. Keep your car at home. Stay away from trouble. Captain Gifford admits that the laws are so confusing a person breaks one in an effort to obey another. At least that's what he told the writer.

Tourists stand aghast at the way traffic is handled in Los Angeles. They wonder at it, but if they had the job of directing one busy corner for a day there would be good reason for their forgetting the sunshine of the south-land.

Captain Heath is to be neither condemned nor commended. Like motorist and pedestrian, he is the victim of circumstances. There are too many automobiles for Los Angeles' narrow streets.

OAKLAND SIX NOW INCREASING SALE

After Sliding Few Notches Down Ladder, Model on Ascending Grade

After sliding a few notches down the ladder in number of cars delivered to owners in California, the Oakland six is again on the ascending end of the score. The temporary decline was due to the fact that the factory underestimated the number of cars needed for the later summer season and fell away behind in production. As is usual in such cases California being the most remote territory in reference to the factory, is the one to suffer.

"We had just hit our stride," says John Neuschaefer, Glendale Oakland dealer. "The new 1925 models were going big when all of a sudden we were confronted with the positive inability of the factory to ship cars to us, so we had to simply mark time and be patient."

Again Going Good

"Now we are again going good and the factory is able to deliver cars to the coast because of the setting in of the winter season in the eastern markets. We can make deliveries on most all models and the new landau which was announced as a feature of the next season Oakland line is making more friends every day. In fact, it is becoming so popular that we may be confronted with the problem of making deliveries on this model at an early date."

"We expect to resume our position as third among all six cylinder cars in volume of sales in Southern California shortly and from the continuous increase in percentages this result will come even sooner than we had anticipated. Oakland popularity has been merited by consistent giving of satisfaction to owners. We have always been reluctant to enter special stunts in order to prove what the Oakland can do. Whenever we have done so the car has always shown up to advantage."

Industrial Heads See Prosperity In Offing

CLEVELAND, Nov. 20.—Cleveland industrial leaders look forward to 1925 with hopes for improvement in business which will continue for at least three years. This attitude was made plain by Colonel Leonard P. Ayres, of the Cleveland Trust Co., who predicted a production of 3,500,000 automobiles next year and a decided increase in buying of farm equipment. Colonel Ayres expects higher wages and living costs, less unemployment, increases in iron and steel production and a larger volume of building construction.

MOTORIST LOSES ENDURANCE TEST

Motor Keeps Running After Physical Strength Of Driver Is Gone

That man will risk much to break records was aptly demonstrated when, in a recent test, a trained athlete pitted his strength and endurance against the stamina of a motor car—and lost. For 120 hours he drove the car constantly, at the conclusion of which he had to be carried from the car, which was running as quietly and smoothly as when it started. The test was made by a St. Louis, Mo., Oldsmobile distributor. The Glendale Oldsmobile distributor is C. H. Hunter, 208 West Broadway.

A cowboy daredevil, W. G. Seeley, was handcuffed to the steering wheel of an Oldsmobile and the hood of the car sealed. For five consecutive days and nights Seeley drove the car at speeds of one to 59 miles an hour, covering a total of 3,193 miles, or an average of 26.6 miles an hour. At no time did the car come to a complete halt. When in traffic or when taking on gas and oil, it was driven back and forth a few feet, the last few miles of the test being made at an average speed of two miles an hour, with the driver propped in his seat, a trained nurse at his side. The test was made under observation of newspaper men, automobile men and police officials.

The car used was a new 1925 Oldsmobile Six touring that had been run only 500 miles and was given harder usage than the average owner would subject it to. One hundred fifty-five gallons of gasoline were used, an average of 20.3 miles to the gallon. Here is what some of the mechanical parts of the car did: Each wheel made a complete revolution 1,610,000 times; engine crank shaft made 8,211,000 revolutions on its bearings; there were 4,105,500 explosions in each of the six cylinders or 2,333,000 explosions in the engine during the run; each piston traveled up and down 6,500,375 feet or a total of 7,387 miles of piston travel.

"These figures seem to be staggering," said Mr. Hunter, "but they prove the excellent workmanship and material of the Oldsmobile."

Shanghai, China, has a buffalo hide market.

Santa Clans was certainly good to a sport model Chevrolet touring car on the floor of C. L. Smith, Glendale Chevrolet distributor, 241 South Orange street, for it has every accessory and furbelow that can be imagined.

The car was fitted out by Mr. Smith and has a most attractive appearance. It sells for $725, delivered, and the saving in accessories is over $60. Here is what you get in extras: wind wings, tonneau wings, rear view mirror, windshield wiper, spare tire, stop light, front bumper, aluminum spade plates, motorometer and locking bar cap, gear shift extension, foot throttle, easy pedal, cowl lights, illuminated clock, nickel plated radiator, front fender braces and gold striped body.

"This car has attracted a great deal of attention since we have had it on the floor," said Mr. Smith, "and several orders have been booked already for Christmas delivery. We can still take care of a number of orders for Christmas delivery and what would be nicer than for your wife to find one of these Smith equipped sport touring cars in her stocking Christmas morning?"

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—Advertisement.

SPECIAL WORK ON GEARS FOR DODGE

Specialists Devise Best Way To Get Most Wear Out Of Steel Used

"Metallurgists work hard in the Dodge factory," said R. E. Corrigan, Dodge distributor for Glendale, 116 West Colorado boulevard, "and the ring gear in the Dodge is a very good example of their research work. It is common practice to forge ring gears from flat steel. Bearing in mind that fiber in steel corresponds to grain in wood, it will be readily seen that this method produces a gear forged across the fiber with consequent loss of strength.

"Dodge Bros. use what is called buttonholing. This is more costly, but insures gears of uniform strength. A thick round steel bar is heated to a white heat, then flattened out under a steam hammer. This semi-flattened steel bar is then laid at an angle on a point and one blow of the hammer splits or buttonholes it, and the once round bar is forged once more to the required round shape. Thus the fiber runs around the gear and produces equal strength.

"The public has come to realize that Dodge cars give surplus value and more satisfactory service over a far greater number of miles than is commonly accepted as the life of an automobile." added Mr. Corrigan. A full line of new models are on Mr. Corrigan's display floor and are attracting a great deal of attention.

True Patriotism Shown By Lad During Battle

By KENNETH EVANS
Wilson Intermediate School, A-9-11
Midshipman Graves was a short but lithe lad of about 16 years. He had blue eyes and a shock of rebellious yellow hair, causing his comrades to call him "Whity." He had waited patiently for some action to take place on board his ship, the Angelus.

One morning Whity's patience was rewarded by the sight of a periscope on the starboard side of the ship. Orders were shouted and carried out, and the ship was a mass of seething manhood.

A long battle ensued. In the thick of things the U boat scored a lucky shot and hit the flagstaff, shattering it and dashing the Stars and Stripes to the ground. Amid the smoke and bloodstained agile figure with the fire of patriotism in his heart, dashed from the protection of the bulkheads and grabbed the glorious banner. Waving it aloft, he strapped it to the stub of the broken flagstaff with his belt. But ere he did so, his little body gave a tremor and he sank weakly to the deck. Two men grasped him and dragged him to the hospital room.

The doctor and the captain were working furiously to keep Whity alive. The men were waiting breathlessly for the decision. The door opened. The doctor with his head low came through the door and shook his head sadly, saying, "He died a hero and gave his life for his country!"

The auxiliary color team which won the contest at Chattanooga, Ten., was present and gave an exhibition drill. A musical program was given.

COMMENT by GIL A. COWAN

Motion picture publicity sometimes assumes a serious aspect, as witness the San Diego theatre men who planted a "fake" bomb in the Union-Tribune editorial rooms Wednesday afternoon to advertise a picture. Needless to say the six story building was quickly cleared of occupants, including John D. Spreckels and Senator Samuel Shortridge while firemen were called to disconnect the supposedly deadly machine.

This "hokum" starts at the studios where highly paid press agents use their fertile imagination to stir interest in their productions. Truly, the spirit of unreality prevails.

The Santa Barbara Morning Press calls attention to the fact that one press agent tells of Sir James M. Barrie visiting Santa Cruz island during the filming of "Peter Pan" while a London dispatch tells of him addressing the Printers' Pension corporation at their annual banquet in England.

While no intentional harm is meant there is bound to be natural revulsion toward the perpetrators of these press agent "fakes" the same as that evidenced by the fight fans who saw Fulton's now famous "flop."

In the University of Southern California "Trojan" the writer finds the following paragraph relative to the "holier than thou" attitude assumed by the University of California and Stanford university:

"It is amusing, although somewhat disgusting, to listen to the stories circulating about San Francisco concerning the Trojans. One particularly insistent fable had it that the entire varsity held an hilarious carousal in San Francisco the night before the game. (Referring to the California-U. S. C. football contest). When confronted with the fact that the team was on the train en route to Berkeley on that particular evening the tale-bearer would merely lift his eyebrows without being convinced in the least."

In another paragraph one finds the statement:

"It would be impossible for U. S. C. in its entire history to do as many things as California and Stanford say have happened in the last two or three years. The two northern institutions are not unlike the prevaricator who told his stories so often that he finally came to believe in them."

And how true the commentator of the Trojan says "Northern California, or that limited area about the San Francisco bay, has toward Los Angeles all the undying love of a man for an attack of poison ivy."

Other things might be cited, but what's the use. Southern California has succeeded so well it can overlook the jealousy of its northern half.

Art In Home and Drama Heard by Club Women

Completing the program on fine arts this afternoon at the presidents' council of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs at the Tuesday afternoon clubhouse, were addresses by Miss Leta Horlocker, district chairman of art, and Mrs. Clara Bryant Heywood, district chairman of drama. Miss Horlocker spoke on "Art Appreciation in the Home," while Mrs. Heywood, who recently returned from the east, told of the three war days which are now features of the New York dramatic season. Mrs. W. E. Mabey, district chairman of music, presented Miss Lucille Gibbs, soprano, and Miss Eleanor Warren, pianist.

CHAPTER XXIV
"With the utmost pleasure," Grant assented. "I only came in here because I was bored."

So they climbed the hill and went back to the Carlton. Cleo was still seated alone at her table. She watched the two men enter together, without change of countenance. Itash was very ceremonious.

"You have, I believe, already met my friend, Mr. Slattery," he ventured.

"I have taken advantage of Mademoiselle's official position here," Grant hastened to intervene. "I have given myself the pleasure of dancing with her."

In that case, Mademoiselle will permit us to join her," Itash suggested. "But you have wine, how is that?"

She glanced at the bottle which Grant had left three-quarters filled.

"They come here, these men after a dance," she explained. "They order wine. The management prefers that I accept."

Itash waved it away impatiently and gave a fresh order. Nevertheless his eyes were somberly lit.

"Amongst Orientals," he confessed, "there is always one trait which survives—the trait of curiosity. Now that I have you here together, tell me, I beg, on what subject did you two converse so earnestly in the corner of the bar there, last night—or was it two nights ago?"

"I was endeavoring to persuade Mademoiselle," Grant replied, "that the Tango, as a dance, is an incomplete affair. The most perfect dances in the world have been those in which the steps are absolutely registered—the minuet, for instance."

"I was venturing," Cleo murmured, "to disagree with Monsieur."

"It appeared," Itash reflected, "that you took the affair seriously."

"Dancing," Grant remarked, "is the profession of Mademoiselle. It happens to be my chief amusement."

Itash turned upon his guest. His question was asked with rapier-like suddenness.

DOBINSON PLAYERS

"Adam and Eva" is being presented at the Tuesday Afternoon club theatre each night this week by the Dobinson Players, at 8:15 o'clock, with a 2:30 o'clock matinee on Saturday. The play is from the pens of those two popular dramatists, Guy Bolton and George Middleton, and comes from New York, where it had a sensational run.

Mary Isabelle Alpaugh, William H. Stephens and George C. Pearce are the featured players. The balance of the cast fully measures up to the high professional standards set by these leads and the play is a credit to any dramatic stock company.

Mrs. Florence Dobinson, who brought the Dobinson Players to Glendale and is leading them to a large success by the influence of her winning personality, states that she is much gratified by the way the Glendale theatre-goers are turning out for her offerings.

glad I came. I love this place and I haven't been here this season. And you? Where are your friends?"

"I came here with the very interesting young man whom I met on the tennis courts," Grant replied. "They tell me that he plays tennis like a pro. Harris, our new secretary, says that he could give me fifteen and owe fifteen. In the other walks of life he is to be taken a little differently. His name is Itash and he is, I understand, devoted to the little danseuse who sits at this table."

The smile faded from Gertrude's lips. She was looking into Grant's face as though her eyes would bore their way into the back of his brain.

"I should not have thought that a party of three would be very amusing for you," she remarked.

"The little danseuse is only a temporary addition," Grant explained. "I am certainly not making my hostess jealous, for he takes his protegee away whenever he chooses, and he insisted upon my coming. Still the position is not without its embarrassments. I am seriously thinking of cultivating one of these ladies for myself. There is a divine being opposite, with vermilion-colored hair and eyes of the most enchanting shade of blue. I think I had better throw myself upon her mercy."

"Oh, my headache," she remarked. "A hot bath and an aspirin disposed of that. Mr. Lyman was a perfect dear and called just as I was wondering whether I should get up and try my luck at the Club, or to go to bed. He suggested some supper and a dance here. I am so

THE GATEWAY

In "The Navigator," his latest Metro-Goldwyn comedy, Buster Keaton is seen today, Friday and Saturday at the Gateway theatre as a sailor who doesn't know a fib from a spunker-gaff, and as a deep-sea diver who thinks he's an envelope and that swordfish are over-size letter openers. Buster has played a remarkable variety of roles in his career.

In "Sherlock, Junior," he was a detective-projectionist. In "Our Hospitality" he was the storm center of a Kentucky feud. In "Three Ages" he was a caveman, gladiator and football warrior.

In "The Balloonatic" he was a sky-hound and in "The Frozen North" the companion of Eskimos and other frozen faces. He was a farm hand and mechanical genius in "The Scarecrow," a bunologist among the Indians in "The Paleface," "The Electric House" revealed him as a bungling electrician.

A poor boy trying to make good in New York was his role in "Day Dreams" and in "The Haunted House" he was a ghost chaser. Buster was all shot up as a shooting gallery boy in "The High Sign" and in "The Playhouse" he took fourteen different parts, every role in fact that either audience actors, musicians or educated monkeys could play in a theatre.

In "Hard Luck" Buster had the role of a suicide brunette while "Convict 13" revealed him wearing a striped uniform and a ball and chain. Under a spreading chestnut tree Buster played the role of a furrier in "The Blacksmith."

And in "The Goat," "The Love Nest," "My Wife's Relations," "The Saphead" and "One Week" Buster appeared as a young husband whose life was just one mishap after another.

THE T. D. &amp; L.

"Dangerous Money" concludes today at the T. D. & L. theatre. Friday and Saturday the feature is May McAvoy, Pauline Frederick and Marie Prevost in "Three Women."

THE GLENDALE

"The Dancing Cheat" concludes today at the Glendale theatre. Friday and Saturday the feature is Hoot Gibson in "The Sawdust Trail."

About eighty per cent of the world's diamond production is sold in the United States.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND SAMMIE'S GLIMMER

Once upon a time, in the afternoon of an early winter day, Uncle Wiggily found himself hopping past the Hollow Stump School, where the Lady Mouse Teacher heard the lessons of the animal children.

"Ah ha!" said the rabbit gentleman to himself, as he gave his pink nose an extra twinkle to keep it from freezing. "I shall stop in and see the Lady Mouse. All the children must have gone home by this time, for it is late. But the Lady Mouse will be there cleaning off the blackboards, or something like that, and I can help her."

So Uncle Wiggily hopped into the Hollow Stump School. But once inside he saw not only the Lady Mouse, but Sammie Little-tail, the rabbit boy, standing in a corner. I don't mean to say that the Lady Mouse was in the corner—just Sammie.

"Oh, how do you do, Uncle Wiggily," squeaked the Lady Mouse.

"I'm fine, thank you; how are you?" asked the bunny. "And how is Sammie?"

"Sammie isn't so good," spoke the Lady Mouse Teacher, while the little rabbit boy blushed rather red behind his ears. "Not that he isn't well," she said, "but he has been a bit bad today. That's why I had him stay after school and stand in the corner."

"What did Sammie do?" asked Mr. Longears.

"You may tell Uncle Wiggily, if you please, Sammie," squeaked the Lady Mouse.

"I'm now—I was playing with my glimmer in class," stammered Sammie.

"What's a glimmer?" asked Uncle Wiggily puzzled like.

"It's a little looking glass that glimmers and glimmers in the sun," explained the Lady Mouse. "A little round looking glass. Sammie took it from his pocket, held it in the sun and made the sun glimmer in the eyes of Lulu and Alice. Whistlewobble, the ducks. And Lulu sneezed and the other pupils laughed. The room was quite disorderly, so I had to take Sammie's glimmer away from him and make him stay in."

"Please, Lady Mouse Teacher, I'll never play with my glimmer in school any more!" promised Sammie. "Ask her to let me go home, Uncle Wiggily!"

"I was going to let you go, without Uncle Wiggily asking me," said the Lady Mouse. "I am going to close the school for the night. Come along, Sammie, we'll all go home together, and I'm sure you will be a better rabbit tomorrow; won't you?"

"Yes, sir—I mean yes, ma'am. I will!" promised Sammie, as he put his glimmer glass in his pocket, for the teacher gave it back to him.

"My, how dark it is!" squeaked the Lady Mouse when the three were out of the school. "I shall

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Never Too Old
"Dear Doctor—In July I visited my daughter and family in St. Louis where I found them and their fat friends all reducing according to your directions and very enthusiastic about them. I, however, am having difficulties. I keep trying the diet and exercises, but have reduced only five pounds in four weeks. I am sixty-seven years old, five feet, five inches tall and weigh 150 pounds.
"I hope you will give some advice to us so-called 'old people', although I don't feel old.
"I want to ask: does reducing react more strenuously on us older ones? I don't eat meat or candy and very little of sweets, since I began to read your column, but still I am overweight, especially around the middle. I don't want my name published. If you fail to answer me in the paper, I will love you just the same.—Mrs. E."

The short rule we have for finding the average adult net weight is as follows: for five feet in height, in stocky build, allow 110 pounds; for every inch over, or under, five and one-half pounds more, or less, respectively. A person's best weight may be slightly over or under this. Large boned people may weigh five or ten pounds more and small boned people five or ten pounds less. According to our rule, if you are in the average column, you should weigh around 137 pounds so you are still about 20 pounds overweight. Now, if you continue to reduce at the rate of five pounds in four weeks, you would be down to normal weight in about six months. That's fine! Don't try to reduce any faster than that. Even four pounds a month is a good reduction. In a year's time, at that rate, you will shed one-fourth of a ton of anatomical overstuffing.

Some of the ill results of reducing come from reducing too rapidly because the diet which will produce a rapid reduction must be deficient in the elements which the system needs. The excess fat of the body is the only tissue that should be called upon to furnish the energy needed which a reducing diet must be deficient in, in order to reduce. The points to be particularly emphasized in reducing during later life are: not reducing too rapidly, and not exercising too strenuously.

It is unnecessary and undesirable to be uncomfortable from

Women Debate

Cleverness in debate was demonstrated yesterday afternoon at the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle by Mesdames Cizek, McLean, Evans, Mair, Routt and Daggett, who presented the affirmative and negative of the subject, "Resolved, That Better Mothers Attend the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle." Although the members present, acting as judges, were heartily in sympathy with the affirmative side of the question, nevertheless the decision was unanimously in favor of the negative debaters, for their clever debating and argument. Mrs. A. A. Barton, former chairman of the circle, was a special guest at the luncheon and afternoon session. Announcement was made that because of the proximity of Thanksgiving, no meeting will be held next week, the meeting being postponed for one week. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Henry began reading from the new study book, "The Home," by Charlotte Perkins.

Acacia P.-T. A.

Mrs. O. H. Spradling, president of the Glendale Federation, Parent-Teacher associations, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Acacia Parent-Teacher association tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school. The musical program will be presented by Mabelle Belfits Clement and her pupil, Miss Bessie Cookman, of Inglewood. The kindergarten club of the Parent-Teacher association will hold a cooked food sale at the school at 1 o'clock.

W. C. T. U. News

Members of the W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Eva M. Hutton, 326 East Colorado street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Members and friends of the organization are extended a cordial invitation to attend. Mrs. Edna Massey will have charge of the program. Members are requested to bring their donations to the W. C. T. U. home for aged women.

Dinner Hostess

Miss Frances Jackson of 350 West Wilson avenue was hostess at a dinner party served at her home last night at 6:30 o'clock. The guests were Miss Carrie Noble, principal of the Wilson Avenue school; Miss Ada Salstrom, teacher at the Wilson school, and Miss Carol Duncan, student at the University of Southern California.

Law Club Meets

Parliamentary Law club of Glendale will hold the usual meeting at the Public Library tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The club is proving of great benefit to the women of Glendale and others interested in organization work. Visitors are given a cordial welcome. Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, president, will give the lesson.

Dinner Party

Mrs. N. B. Penman and her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Moore, were hostesses at a dinner party given at 1259 South Maryland avenue last night. The guests were: Rev. and Mrs. Henry Scheidegger, Mrs. Virgil Wilcox and George Stultz of Lankershim, Mrs. Jack Pentin of Montrose, and Mrs. Lydia Marr. Rev. Scheidegger is pastor of the Nazarene church in Glendale.

Board Meeting

Glendale women, who are executives of the First District Parent-Teacher associations, went to Los Angeles today to attend a delegation at the meeting were Mesdames O. H. Spradling, A. H. Brown, E. B. Moore, Mae Rosenberg, H. V. Henry, Pomeroy, C. E. Hutchinson and W. A. Kulp.

make a firm dough. Mix with the hand and squeeze to put the mixture together, then divide in fourths, roll out thin and cut in squares. Cook on a hot, greased griddle till done on one side, then turn to brown other side.

Shortbread—Rub together with the hands four cups of flour (pastry flour preferred); two cups of butter, three-quarters of a cup of powdered sugar and one-fourth teaspoon of ground nutmeg. Pack the mixture one-half inch deep in shallow pans lined with oiled paper and bake for 30 minutes, or till done through and browned in a moderate oven. Just before it is done, cut in squares. (Note: To make bread flour more like pastry flour add two tablespoons of dry cornstarch flour to each cup of flour.)

Current Buns—To one pound of bread dough add one-fourth pound of soft lard, one pound of currants, one pound of raisins, one-fourth pound of dried, finely-chopped orange peel, one-fourth pound of chopped almonds, one-half pound of sugar, one-half teaspoon of caraway seed, one-half teaspoon of ground ginger, and one teaspoon of cinnamon. Put this in greased cup-cake pans, press into shape, and bake for 40 minutes in a slow oven, possibly longer.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman, in care of the "Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, so if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Scotch Oat Cakes—In one cup of luke-warm water dissolve one-half teaspoon of baking soda, one-half teaspoon of sugar and one-third teaspoon of salt. Put this into a mixing bowl and add three tablespoons of pork fat (melted) and enough Scotch oatmeal to

Home Wedding

Miss Margaret Elizabeth Morrow, of 1152 Allen street and Clifford R. Guzzell, of Los Angeles, were united in marriage at a pretty ceremony performed Tuesday night, November 18, 1924, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. S. Cole, 1249 Justin street. Rev. C. A. Cole, pastor of the Central Christian church officiated and performed the ring ceremony. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white silk and wore as headpiece a white veil. Her bouquet was made of white roses and baby's breath. Relatives of the couple attended the ceremony. Refreshments were served after the ceremony and the happy couple departed on a honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 1152 Allen street. The bride has been employed by the C. R. Walker Candy Co., at 134 North Brand boulevard. The bridegroom is a machinist at a movie studio in Los Angeles.

Thanks Program

Thanksgiving thoughts were given yesterday by members of the Literature department of the Tuesday Afternoon club, in response to roll call at the meeting at the club house. Mrs. G. H. Rowe had arranged an enjoyable Thanksgiving program, which included: songs, "The Star" (Rogers), "Happy Songs" (del Rio), "Papa Passes," by Mrs. C. D. Heller, accompanied by Miss Mary Orcutt; the story of the origin of Thanksgiving and the first Thanksgiving proclamation, written by George Washington, Miss Mary Rhodes; reading, "The First Thanksgiving" by Mrs. Harry Wilcox; Abraham Lincoln's Thanksgiving proclamation, Mrs. R. W. Mottern; poem on Thanksgiving, Mrs. Henrietta Kethro; Thanksgiving poems, Mrs. Rowe, who also told the story of the first Thanksgiving on the Pacific coast. Mrs. R. W. Bolton, curator, presided over a short business hour.

Birthday Party

A birthday surprise party was held at the home of O. H. Russell, 308 Broderick drive, Tuesday night, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Russell. He was the recipient of a number of birthday remembrances. Dancing and cards formed a pleasant pastime for the evening. Relatives present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Russell and children, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McLachlin, Raymond and Elva McLachlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Holt, Mrs. J. A. McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McGowan, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Campbell.

Plan For Bazaar

So successful was the recent bazaar held by the Electa Auxiliary of Glendale chapter, No. 422, O. E. S. that plans were made at the meeting yesterday for another benefit affair early in December. The women were guests yesterday of Mrs. Helen Walker, 519 East Windsor road. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames Josephine Muhleman and Eva Smith, Mrs. Clyde Hewitt, president. Work was done on quilts for the Masonic orphans' home at Covina. Luncheon was served to twenty-eight women.

Cats and Dolls

Cunning cats and dolls as holiday gifts for crippled children in Los Angeles, were made yesterday by Glen Eyrle Social club, meeting in the Masonic temple. Hostesses were Mesdames Reed, Rees, Little, Woodside and Lepore. A turkey was sold for $75 and the entire proceeds of the affair was $225. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served at the close of the games.

P.-T. A. Meeting

The Wilson Avenue Parent-Teacher association will meet at the school Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock instead of 3:15 o'clock. A meeting of the executive board will be held at 2 o'clock. Mothers of the school are invited to visit the school before the meeting. The program will be presented by teachers of the school on subjects they teach.

Birthday Supper

Pythian Sisters will hold a birthday supper at the Knights of Pythias hall, corner of South Brand boulevard and Park avenue, tomorrow night at 6 o'clock. The birthday supper is held to celebrate October birthdays of members. The regular business meeting will be held after the supper.

At Toll Home

Resident and visiting P. E. O. members in Glendale are to be received tomorrow afternoon by Chapter BA at the home of Mrs. C. H. Toll, 1635 Kennel road. A special invitation is issued to unaffiliated members in Glendale. Those planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Josephine Brant, Glendale 2239.

Woodcraft News

Local Neighbors of Woodcraft are being engaged with plans for a food sale Saturday at Washburn Wilson's, 205 East Broadway, and a card party next Tuesday at the Legion hall on East Broadway.

Circle Club Meets

The Christian Circle club will hold the regular meeting at the First Methodist church tonight, with supper at 5:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Victor C. Palm of Berkeley arrived today to spend a week visiting Mrs. A. Johnson, 1146 East Lexington drive.

Miss Lenore Wiebe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wiebe, 438 Burchett street, is confined to her home on account of illness.

Leo Jensen of 418 North Glendale avenue, left the first of the week for San Francisco on a business trip.

J. L. Simmons of Stockton arrived Tuesday and will visit for a few days at the C. M. Sparr home, 234 South Jackson street, where Mrs. Simmons resides.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Silver Wedding

When Dr. and Mrs. Roy V. Hogue arrived at the Oakmont Country club at 6:30 o'clock last night to be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worley, they were happily surprised to find that their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary was being celebrated by a brilliant dinner party for past commanders, present officers of Glendale commandery, Knights Templar, and their wives. They found a company of forty seated at the dinner table to greet them. The Knights Templar emblem, cross and crown, was used throughout the dinner appointments. An electrically lit emblem was seen over the mantel of the dining room. The same insignia was cleverly carried out in the various courses of the dinner. Huge yellow chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece of the triangular table. Streamers of green were added color. As Dr. and Mrs. Hogue entered the dining room Mrs. Gihuly played the wedding march. Greetings on their silver anniversary were given by Commander Robert M. Grumbling, later Past Commander Clem Moore, on behalf of the commandery, presented Dr. Hogue with a silver pitcher. Dr. Hogue responded as a past commander, expressing his appreciation of the honor and paying fitting tribute to Mrs. Hogue. Francis J. W. Henry led the singing of a toast and later the company motored to the Tuesday Afternoon club theatre to attend the performance of the Dobinson Players. W. W. Worley arranged the affair.

Housewarming

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wheeler of 510 West Allen street entertained members of Glendale Camp, No. 67, Spanish War veterans, and the auxiliary members at a housewarming held in their home Saturday night. Members of the camp went to the Wheeler home about a month ago and assisted in finishing the building of their house, which Mr. Wheeler had started. The party was given to the members in appreciation of their assistance. Mrs. Wheeler had arranged games for the entertainment. Later refreshments of pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee were served.

Benefit Success

A goodly sum was realized at the benefit card party at the Knights of Columbus clubhouse, 320 E. St. on Saturday evening, last night, by Mesdames M. J. Brennan, T. H. Ratigan and F. J. Clark. The money will be used for the school fund of the Holy Family Catholic church. Thirty tables of bridge and five hundred were in play and thirteen prizes awarded. A turkey was sold for $75 and the entire proceeds of the affair was $225. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served at the close of the games.

P.-T. A. Meeting

The Wilson Avenue Parent-Teacher association will meet at the school Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock instead of 3:15 o'clock. A meeting of the executive board will be held at 2 o'clock. Mothers of the school are invited to visit the school before the meeting. The program will be presented by teachers of the school on subjects they teach.

Birthday Supper

Pythian Sisters will hold a birthday supper at the Knights of Pythias hall, corner of South Brand boulevard and Park avenue, tomorrow night at 6 o'clock. The birthday supper is held to celebrate October birthdays of members. The regular business meeting will be held after the supper.

At Toll Home

Resident and visiting P. E. O. members in Glendale are to be received tomorrow afternoon by Chapter BA at the home of Mrs. C. H. Toll, 1635 Kennel road. A special invitation is issued to unaffiliated members in Glendale. Those planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Josephine Brant, Glendale 2239.

Woodcraft News

Circle Club Meets

Chats On Beauty

By EDNA KENT FORBES

hair and rub until you have got the oil fairly well into the scalp. It's bound to make the hair oilier for a time, that cannot be helped; you must try the oil on the hair tonight before a shampoo, and shampoo once a fortnight. And you must clip the hair ends.

Blue Eyes—Pimples, and the resulting blackheads, are common at your age but not necessary. As you weigh so much I'm inclined to think the skin trouble is due simply to over-eating. The treatment that will clear your skin, will reduce you also. Eliminate sweets and about half the fats and starches you eat now. That is, eat no candy, no cake, no drug store confections, no pies, no heavy puddings made with flour. Eat very little meat, and never eat pork, ham or bacon. Instead, eat plenty of fruit, plenty of vegetables (go easy on potatoes though), plenty of salad. Then watch your skin clear and your figure grow slender. Watch this column for a new blackhead treatment.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, so if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

HALLO-KIWANIS FILM TO BE SEEN

Thousands of Glendale kids Feature Movies for T.D. & L. Theatre

Thousands of Glendale children will be seen in moving pictures
 when the Hallo-Kiwanis film, taken during the parade and pageant Friday, October 31, will be shown at the T. D. & L. theatre for four days—November 26, 27, 28 and 29.

The Hallo-Kiwanis pageant and festival on October 31, was one of the big events in Glendale
 Kiwanis' history and 4,500 youngsters marched down Brand boulevard to the Harvard High school field. Chief of Police John D. Fraser led the parade, then a cordon of motorcycle officers followed by the Elks' band. Following these were the massed ranks of the children. As the parade swung by the corner of Brand boulevard and Wilson avenue, glaring Kleig lights lit up the scene and moving picture machines operated by Pathe and Animated Weekly news reel operators, clicked off hundreds of feet of film.

At Harvard street school grounds each youngster was given a package containing candy and cookies, then served with a hot drink. About 9 o'clock fireworks were shown, following which the huge forty-foot bonfire was lighted, and as it burned again, the Kleig lights were turned on and hundreds of feet of film taken.

Filming of the officers of the Kiwanis club and members of different committees handling the Halloween festival took place at the close of the program. Eight hundred feet of film was developed for the Kiwanis club and this will be shown at the T. D.
 & L. theatre on the four days mentioned above. It is planned to also show the film at the convention of Kiwanis international at St. Paul, next July.

Kiwanis committee in charge of the film showing urge every Glendalian to purchase a ticket for the affair from any member of the Kiwanis club or at any of firms listed below and thus help Kiwanis carry on:

Glendale Phonograph Co., Lauderdale Irish Lumber store, Buster

Reciprocity Day

Mrs. Faith Story, first vice president of the California state
 P. E. O., was special guest at its reciprocity day luncheon and its meeting, chapter DJ, yesterday at the home of Mrs. C. J. Rusby, 339 North Louise street. Mrs.
 Howard Lennox was assisting hostess. In addition to members of chapter DJ, there were present members of other Glendale chapters. Mrs. O. A. Danielson, president of the hostess chapter, directed a short business hour. There followed a program, including songs,
 "The Unknown Soldier" ("O'Hara"), "Thank God for Garden" (del Riego), "My Task" (E.
 L. Ashford), by Mrs. Frank Arnold, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Mottern; readings, "Aunt Samantha from Watts" and "Conquered Cognate" by Mrs. J. M.
 Eylerick; paper on "Macdowell"
 by Mrs. Olsen; three Macdowell compositions, "Uncle Remus" ("To a Wild Rose," "Rigaudon," played by 11-year-old Ruth Brodine.

Guests besides Mrs. Story were Mesdames Goss, E. U. Emery, Smith, Brant, J. M. Onstott, E. W.
 W. Hayward, C. D. Lusby, Dana Gained, with Arnold, Brown, Alie, McDougall, Webster, Pearl and Logan of Glendale chapters.

Missionary Group
 Mrs. A. J. Polley of 532 East Raleigh street was hostess yesterday to members of the Mrs.
 George O. Robinson group of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Methodist church. Mrs.
 Edith Deckman was the assisting hostess. Thirty-six members and friends were present to help sew for the hospitals and homes for the needy. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. R. W. Bolton, president, assisted by Mrs.
 Nellie Wheeler. Devotional services were led by Mrs. Sophia Waters. Mrs. Lillian Laaf entertained with a vocal selection and five members of the group presented a play, "No Room."

DEATHS—FUNERALS
 MRS. POLLY ROSINDA PARK
 Mrs. Polly Rosinda Park died
 Wednesday night, November 19,
 1924, at her home at Sycamore Canyon. She was 62 years old and was born at Holly, Michigan, and came to Glendale one and one-half years ago. Surviving relatives are two sons, Homer J. Park of Glendale, Floyd Park of Michigan and two daughters, Mrs. Millie Steele and Miss Mary Park, both of Glendale. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the funeral chapel of Kiefer & Eylerick, under-takers. The remains will be shipped to Flushing, Michigan, for interment.

COUNCIL DECIDES ON STREET WORK

Glenoaks Boulevard Paving And Improvements To Be Taken Up

The first step in the improvement of Glenoaks boulevard was taken by the City Council this morning when that body instructed the city attorney to draft the necessary proceedings for the widening and paving of that portion of the boulevard lying on the northerly side, from Western avenue to the west city limits.

This action followed the presentation by O. M. Newby of a petition signed by a majority of the property owners involved, asking for the improvement of this section of Glenoaks boulevard, and specifying six-inch concrete as the material to be used.

Apartment House Plan
 E. S. Kennedy appeared before the council with a request for a change in the setback line on Pacific avenue, in order that he may erect a 40-apartment structure at the northwest corner of Pacific avenue and Harvard street. He requested to present a petition before the session of November 25, when the matter will be taken up.

All protests were denied at the hearings on the improvement of Hillside drive, Palmer avenue and other streets, and resolutions adopted ordering in the work.

All protests on the assessments for the improvement of Viola and Stocker streets, El Rio avenue and other streets, were denied and resolutions adopted confirming the assessment rolls.

All protests were denied on the bonds for the improvement of Garfield avenue, and a resolution adopted authorizing the issuance of the bonds. The hearing on establishment of a commercial district at Canada boulevard and Verdugo road was continued until November 28.

Welfare Head Talks To Parent-Teachers Body

L. T. Rowley, superintendent of child welfare and attendance, was the speaker at the meeting of the juvenile protection chairman of the parent-teacher association yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Bowlin, juvenile protection chairman of the Glendale Federation Parent-Teachers' associations, 331 North Adams street. The talk given by Mr.
 Rowley proved interesting. He explained how to bring juvenile protection work before the Parent-Teachers' association, and how people can protect their own children. He said further that it would be well for all parents of Glendale to familiarize themselves with the school law of California.

 the market, ten are bullish and four non-committal.

According to The Oil City Der-ick, the daily average production of crude oil last week decreased 5876 barrels, to 1,931,346, in the United States. Production in Oklahoma, showed an increase of 12,000 barrels, however.

Prominent directors in both the Southern Pacific and Rock Island railway state there have been no negotiations looking to a merger or guaranty of any kind, according to E. F. Hutton's wire.

The Motor Wheel corporation declared an extra dividend of 2 per cent, payable December 20.
 It has made recent remarkable financial gains, according to its

 By International News Service

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The grain market firmed up in the late inclosing today and closed with a stronger undertone, despite lower prices.

Wheat finished 1-2 to 3-c. off.
 Corn closed 1-2 to 1-3-4 lower.
 Oats finished 1-2 to 7-8 off. Provisions closed firmer.

NEW YORK CLOSING
 By W. S. COUSINS
 For International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Two factors stood out prominently in the violent movements of prices and heavy turn-over of stocks in the New York market today: the continued demand for non-dividend railroad stocks, with sharp upturns in prices of heretofore inactive stocks and the sharp reversal of form of the oil stocks, which were made the leaders in the upward movement in the second half of the day's session.

The early trading was devoted almost exclusively to the railroad and high priced industrial leaders, under cover of the strength of which heavy profit taking was induced in elsewhere. It was also reported that powerful bearish operators who have been "feeling for the top" for the last few days were again selling industrials for the decline, their operations being extended principally to the stocks which have risen in brisk fashion in the last two weeks.

Assurance of favorable consideration of the dividend of Frisco common led to heavy buying of that stock, as well as of Katy, Missouri-Pacific and other stocks on which dividend action is expected. Kansas City Southern moved prominently to the front with a jump of five points to 32 1/2. New Haven also attracted considerable attention, rising in sharp advance to 30 1/4, a new high since 1922, when the stock
 sold at 35 1/2.

During this advance of the rail-

Income $125 per month. Room for Auto and Garage.

Do You Know that York boulevard is now being paved right into Glendale, and that this is the direct short route to Highland Park, South Pasadena, Alhambra and points beyond?

Sycamore Canon Road has just been paved and is developing into an important route for traffic, will ultimately be the short route to Palmridge, Pasadena and points beyond.

Adams Street is the only direct north and south street between Brand Avenue and Sycamore Canon Road, and with the building of the new theatre near Glendoville, this house is more important as a through street.

Get Your Map and you will see that VENNEDY STREET is the direct outlet to BRAND Boulevard for each of these three thoroughfares.

This property is a three door from Brand, facing Maryland. The houses are new, well built,
and the entire property is in fine condition.

This house at the front has been divided into two apartments, each with separate entrance, the front renting for $60.00, the rear, now renting for $20.00, has its own separate kitchen and would easily rent for $30.00 a month at $280.00 a year. It is reached by a separate walk from the front, has its own separate bathroom, and is a good buy.
There is ample room for another house or a small duplex between the two, with this is an extraordinary buy at $13,500; $5,000 cash, balance to suit purchaser. Only $250.00

BURBANK NEWS

BURBANK, Nov. 20.—The principal speaker before the dinner gathering of the Business and Professional Women's club tonight, at the Santa Rosa cafe, will be Miss Bessie A. Byer, who has been in the Philippines on government service and is now a resident of Santa Monica.

For some time efforts have been made to secure Miss Byer for a lecture here and the management of the club states that this will be a special treat, as the visitor is a speaker of note and of wide experience. She will give her lecture free and will illustrate it with lantern slides. "The Philippine Islands" will be the subject of the talk.

The Burbank Realty board will elect officers for 1925 at the meeting of December 1, it is announced by President J. Walston. The board finds itself in good shape to start the new year, he states, and with the holidays out of the way, he anticipates the biggest realty season Burbank has had.

The High school P-T. A. met yesterday afternoon. Mrs. A. G. Bossuet, the principal speaker, talked on "Topics to Be Considered by Parent-Teacher Associations."

Because of lack of room for the Sunday school, the congregation of the Baptist church is building an addition in the rear of the church on Third street and Magnolia avenue. The addition is of frame construction, 46x50 feet, and will be built to provide class rooms for the children.

George Soules and family, who left here July 1, for a trip to the east, have returned and are now residing on San Jose avenue, and Mr. Soules has resumed his work with a local lumber company. The family went to its former home in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

FROM EAGLE ROCK

EAGLE ROCK, Nov. 20.—The attention of local high school students is called by Mrs. J. C. Reiter, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, to an essay contest on the subject: "What California in Miniature Means to the State." This refers to the big relief map that was unveiled last night in the nave of the Perry building, San Francisco. This map for which an official title is now being sought in the name contest open to all Californians, is the largest and most comprehensive reproduction of its kind ever constructed. It shows, as from an aeroplane, the mountains and valleys, rivers and streams, bays and harbors, railroad lines and highway systems, cities and towns of the entire state.

The contest runs until November 29, Mrs. Reiter states. The essays are not to exceed 500 words and are to bring out various reasons why this map is valuable. Twenty gold and silver pins of appropriate design will be awarded as prizes, with special gold brooch for first prize if won by a girl, or gold belt buckle if won by a boy. Further information may be had by communicating with Mrs. Reiter at Chamber of Commerce headquarters in the local City Hall on Colorado boulevard.

The recent piano recital by Nell Stegner's pupils was a most enjoyable affair. The pupils showed good technical training and hours of careful study. Those assisting on the program were, Mme. Margaret Weidner, noted soprano, and Benjamin W. McLaughlin, popular tenor.

Mrs. W. O. Johnson of Ridge View avenue gave a reception Wednesday afternoon at her home, in honor of her father, Dr. Parker, who has just passed his eighty-fifth milestone.

Earl Houck, the blind baritone and leader of the Presbyterian church choir, recently sang over the radio at Angelus Temple.

Dr. N. B. Ackley has returned to Eagle Rock after a number of weeks' absence on business in Montana.

Mrs. C. E. Festus and son, Paul, have returned from a visit to Festus, Mo. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jule Aubuchon and Miss Evelyn Aubuchon.

Orange Stand Taking Orders For Holidays

The Golden Mill orange stand, 137 South Brand boulevard, is taking orders for punch for Thanksgiving, catering especially to parties and dinners. Fresh orange juice is made every day; grape and apple juice is dispensed at the stand in conjunction with root beer and soft drinks. Glace fruit, boxed candies, cigars and cigarettes also are sold.

NEWS OF VALLEY

LANKERSHIM, Nov. 20.—The $780,000 issue of local water bonds has been sold, the check delivered to the Los Angeles city water department, it is learned, and work will start within sixty days, or as soon as the pipe begins to arrive from the east. Lankershim should be using city water by March 1, 1925, say Los Angeles engineers.

The city water department has just completed another well on Vanowen street that has the appearance of having the best flow yet. It is in the wash just west of Ethel street, with a depth of 585 feet, and the water has risen to within forty feet of the surface, giving 545 feet of pumping water. Three well rigs are at work at present driving down wells on the Van Owen street. Other wells are being equipped with pumps and motors to give a bountiful water supply to Hollywood and Lankershim.

The citizens of Lankershim can rest assured of a pure, fresh water supply after the system has been installed, say engineers, for the big pipe laid through this section goes only as far as these wells and evidently will have no direct connection with the aqueduct reservoir.

W. H. Andrews, manager of the company that platted and subdivided Lankershim, back in 1889, was present at the Ladies' Aid society bazaar Tuesday night at the Community church. Mr. Andrews planted the large pepper and eucalyptus trees that now stand in tall rows along Lankershim boulevard.

The day's program at the bazaar was completed by a delightful musical entertainment. Lankershim, for the first time, had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Elizabeth Du Barry Gill on the harp. Mrs. Gill toured the United States several seasons, playing on the Lyceum circuits, and was one of the famous harpists of her time. The audience Tuesday night was charmed with her selections.

'Peggy Jeanne Shoppe' Opens On South Brand

The Peggy-Jeanne shoppe, a new venture, has opened at 408 South Brand boulevard, under the supervision of Mrs. Florence Gee. The line for the present will be needlework, lingerie, children's and infants' apparel, Christmas suggestions and gifts. Later other lines will be added.

Mrs. Gee came from Pittsburgh, Pa., recently, although she is no stranger to Southern California, having lived at one time in Pasadena for five years. She says she is in California to stay this time and after a careful investigation of Southern California cities is convinced Glendale is the best from a business standpoint.

A clay tablet telling of the fall of Nineveh has been dug up after 2600 years.

A RELIABLE COUGH REMEDY

Why experiment with unknown remedies for that cough or cold when you can secure FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND? It is a safe and reliable remedy for the relief of coughs, colds, hoarseness. Equally beneficial for young and old. Mrs. Anna Cornell, Bridgeton, N. J., states: "I bought FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND for my cold and find it great." Insist upon the genuine. Refuse substitutes.
